INTRODUCTION

The Local Rules are divided into three parts: (1) General Local Rules applicable to civil and criminal cases; (2) Civil Local Rules applicable only to civil cases; and (3) Criminal Local Rules applicable only to criminal cases. Each part begins with a Rule defining its scope.

Following the recommendation of the Judicial Conference, the numbering of the General and the Civil Local Rules has been tied to the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and, in the case of the Criminal Local Rules, to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

Some of the Local Rules are similar to certain Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Local Rules do not, however, repeat the Federal Rules in their entirety, and practitioners are advised to consult both the Local Rules and the applicable Federal Rules. These Local Rules have been adopted pursuant to the authority of 28 U.S.C. § 2071, Rule 83 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 57 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

PART A. GENERAL RULES

I. SCOPE OF RULES; FORM OF ACTION

General L.R. 1. Scope and Purpose of Rules

(a) The General Rules set forth in Part A govern both civil and criminal proceedings in this District. The Rules set forth in Part B govern civil proceedings in this District. The Rules set forth in Part C govern criminal and petty offense proceedings in this District. The Rules are to be cited as follows: “S.D. Ala. GenLR ___”; “S.D. Ala. CivLR ___”; and “S.D. Ala. CrLR ___.”

(b) These Rules are intended to supplement the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, and other controlling statutes and rules. They shall be applied, construed, and enforced to avoid inconsistency with other governing statutes and rules, and shall be employed to provide fairness and simplicity in procedure to avoid technical and unjustified delay and to secure a just, expeditious, and inexpensive determination of all proceedings.

(c) In these Rules, “Court” includes both District Judges and Magistrate Judges; “Judge,” without specifying “District” or “Magistrate,” includes both; “Clerk” means the Clerk of the District Court and includes Deputy Clerks of Court; and “Marshal” means the United States Marshal and includes Deputy Marshals.

(d) Any Judge may, in the interests of justice in a particular case, suspend application and enforcement of any Local Rule or any portion thereof.

(e) Subject to the review of the District Court, the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of Alabama is authorized to make and amend rules governing practice and procedure in all actions within its jurisdiction. Any rules made pursuant to this authorization must be consistent with Bankruptcy Rule 9029, as well as Fed. R. Civ. P. 83, and may not limit the use of the Official Forms.

General L.R. 1.1. Procedures for Individual Judges

The Judges of this Court have adopted individual Orders Governing Final Pretrial Conference, copies of which are available from the Clerk and on the Court’s website. Some Judges also have adopted rules regarding courtroom decorum and other matters applicable to actions assigned to their dockets. Some of these rules have been reduced to writing. Attorneys should check with the Clerk to ascertain whether a particular Judge has any such printed rules.

II. PLEADINGS AND OTHER PAPERS

General L.R. 5. Serving and Filing Pleadings and Other Papers

(a) General Format of Papers Presented for Filing.

(1) Pleadings and other papers must be formatted for reproduction on 8-½" x 11" paper. The text must be double-spaced, but quotations more than two lines long may be indented and single-spaced. Headings and footnotes may be single-spaced. Margins must be at least 1" on all four sides. Page numbers may be placed in the margins, but no text or footnotes may appear there.

(2) All pleadings and other papers must use a plain, Roman style (or similar) font, although italics or boldface may be used for emphasis. Case names must be italicized or underlined. Font must be 12 point or larger, including footnotes.

(3) For filings by represented parties, at least one attorney appearing in the action shall sign each document filed. In addition, there shall be included directly beneath the signature line the typed or printed name, address, and telephone number of all attorneys of record representing that party.

(4) For filings by pro se litigants, the unrepresented party shall personally sign each document filed and shall include, directly beneath the signature line, his or her name, address and telephone number.

(5) The requirements of this subsection (a)(1) and (2) are not applicable when using a form approved and/or furnished by the Court.

(b) Electronic Filing.

(1) The Clerk is authorized to implement and publish Electronic Case Filing Procedures (titled "Administrative Procedures for Filing, Signing, and Verifying Pleadings and Documents by Electronic Means"), including the procedure for registration of attorneys and for the distribution of passwords to permit electronic filing, service and noticing of pleadings and other documents.

(2) All pleadings and other papers must be filed by electronic means unless exempted by law or the Electronic Case Filing Procedures or excused by the Court. The Court may make reasonable exemption from the electronic filing requirement.

(3) The electronic filing or signing of pleadings or other documents by an attorney who is a registered participant in the Electronic Case Filing System shall constitute the signature of that attorney under Fed. R. Civ. P. 11.

(4) No attorney shall knowingly permit, or cause to permit, his/her password to be utilized by anyone other than an authorized member or employee of his/her law firm.

(5) No person shall knowingly utilize or cause another person to utilize the password of a registered attorney, unless such person is an authorized member or employee of the law firm.

(6) The electronic filing of a pleading or other document in accordance with the Electronic Case Filing Procedures shall constitute entry of that pleading or other document on the docket kept by the Clerk under Fed. R. Civ. P. 79.

(7) The Clerk shall enter all orders, decrees, judgments, and proceedings of the Court in accordance with the Electronic Case Filing Procedures, which shall constitute entry of the order, decree, judgment, or proceeding on the docket kept by the Clerk under Fed. R. Civ. P. 58 and Fed. R. Crim. P. 55.

(c) Non-Electronic Filing. If electronic filing is exempted or excused, the original of all papers must be filed conventionally. All papers filed by non-electronic means must be filed with the Clerk and not in the Judge's chambers. Except when the documents are deemed by the Clerk to be voluminous, the Clerk shall scan the original papers and enter them into the record electronically.

(d) Service.

(1) Whenever pleadings or other documents are filed electronically in accordance with the Electronic Case Filing Procedures, the Clerk shall serve the filing party, and all other parties whose attorney of record is a registered participant in the Electronic Case Filing System, with a "Notice of Electronic Filing" by electronic means at the time of docketing.

(2) The filing party shall serve the pleadings or other documents upon all persons entitled to notice or service in accordance with the applicable Rules. When service by first-class mail is permitted under the Rules, the filing party may make service in accordance with sub-paragraph (d)(3) below.

(3) If the recipient of notice or service is a registered participant in the Electronic Case Filing System, service by electronic means of the Notice of Electronic Filing shall be the equivalent of service by first-class mail, postage prepaid.

(4) A separate certificate of service is not required for papers served electronically if all parties were served through the Court's Electronic Case Filing System.

(5) Service by electronic means is complete on transmission.

(6) Service by electronic means is not effective if the party making service learns that the attempted service did not reach the person to be served.

(7) Participation in the Electronic Case Filing System by receipt of a password from the Court shall constitute a request for service and notice electronically pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5(b)(2)(E) and Fed. R. Crim. P. 49. Participants in the Electronic Case Filing System, by receiving a password from the Court, agree to receive service by electronic means.

General L.R. 5.2. Sealed Documents

The following procedures govern documents under seal in criminal and civil cases in this District.

(a) General. A "sealed document" is a document access to which, other than by the Court or its authorized personnel, is prohibited or restricted. Portions of a document cannot be filed or placed under seal - only the entire document may be sealed. No sealed document may be unsealed or disclosed except upon order of the Court or in compliance with this Rule.

(b) Procedures for Filing a Sealed Document.

(1) Format. Any sealed document must be filed and conspicuously labeled "SEALED."

(2) Motion to Seal. To obtain a sealing order, a party must file an unsealed written motion containing:

(A) A generic, non-confidential identification of the document to be sealed;

(B) The basis upon which the party seeks the order, including the reasons why alternatives to sealing are inadequate; and

(C) The duration for which sealing is requested.

The moving party also must attach to the motion a proposed unsealed order granting the motion and setting forth the basis for the Court's action.

The moving party also must file, in camera and under seal, the document proposed to be sealed. The CM/ECF “Sealed Document(s)” event may be used for this filing. The document will be kept under seal by the Clerk, pending a decision by the Court on the motion. If the motion to seal is denied, the Clerk will delete the document from the Electronic Case Filing System and return any conventionally filed document to the party, unless the Court orders otherwise.

(3) Public Notice of Motion to Seal or Sealing Order. A motion to seal, and any order to seal, must be docketed according to the Administrative Procedures of the Court.

(4) Objection to Sealing. Any person or entity, whether a party or not, may object to a motion to seal a document or may file a motion to unseal a document previously sealed.

(5) Agreement by Parties. These provisions do not limit the ability of the parties, by agreement, to restrict access to documents that are not filed with the Court. Any agreement calling for the sealing of any document to be filed with the Court is subject to the provisions of this Rule.

(6) Extension of Sealing. No order to seal will be extended except upon a subsequent order of the Court obtained in accordance with this Rule.

(7) Sealed Case. No case may be sealed in its entirety except by order of the Court obtained in accordance with this Rule and applicable law.

(c) Exceptions.

(1) No motion or order is required to file the following under seal:

(A) An unredacted version of a document containing personal data identifiers, filed in compliance with these Rules, the Federal Rules of Procedure, or the E-Government Act;

(B) An ex parte motion or application where sealing is permitted or required by law;

(C) Presentence investigation reports, pretrial services reports, psychiatric or psychological evaluations in criminal cases, including documents incorporating the content of the foregoing documents;

(D) Affidavits submitted in support of a motion for in forma pauperis status;

(E) Motions, orders, notices, and other matters occurring before the grand jury, subject to the provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 6;

(F) Applications and orders for the disclosure of tax information (26 U.S.C. § 6103);

(G) Motions and orders involving the Classified Information Procedures Act (18 U.S.C. app 3 §§ 1-16) or Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act (50 U.S.C. § 1801);

(H) Pleadings and documents involving the Juvenile Delinquency Act;

(I) Requests and orders for authorization of investigative, expert, or other services pursuant to the Criminal Justice Act; or

(J) Other documents required by law to be filed under seal.

(2) No publicly filed motion or order under this Rule is required for sealing the following:

(A) Motion by the United States for a downward departure or reduction of sentence in a criminal case, with leave of Court upon a showing of particular need in an individual case to prevent serious harm; or

(B) Search, seizure, and arrest warrants and affidavits.

(3) A publicly filed motion and order citing only the statutory authority for sealing is required for the following:

(A) Applications and orders for pen/trap devices (18 U.S.C. § 2703); and

(B) Applications and orders for wire, oral, or electronic communication interception (18 U.S.C. § 2516).

(d) Unsealing. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the Clerk will unseal the following sealed documents when indicated:

(1) Search Warrant. After the search is executed and the warrant is returned to the Clerk.

(2) Arrest Warrant, and In a Violation Case, Any Violation Report. After the arrest is made.

(3) Indictment. Upon the arrest or appearance of a single Defendant. In multi-Defendant cases, and unless the Court orders otherwise, upon the earliest of any of the following:

(A) Ten (10) days following the arrest of any Defendant;

(B) Thirty (30) days after return of the indictment; or

(C) When all Defendants have been arrested or summoned.

In criminal cases, each Defendant must be provided with a copy of the charges against that Defendant (with other portions redacted, if necessary), even if the indictment or complaint is otherwise sealed. In multi-Defendant cases in which the indictment is to remain sealed, the government is responsible for submitting to the Magistrate Judge for approval, reasonably in advance of the initial appearance, an appropriately redacted indictment for disclosure to the Defendant and to the public.

(4) Criminal Complaint. Thirty (30) days after issuance or when all Defendants named are in custody or have been summoned, whichever is the earliest.

(5) Other Sealed Documents. The documents will be unsealed 120 days from the date of entry of the sealing order, unless the Court by order provides otherwise.

General L.R. 7. Requests for Court Action

A request for Court action must be presented by motion and may not be presented by informal means such as a letter.

III. DISCLOSURES AND DISCOVERY [Reserved]

IV. TRIAL

General L.R. 43. Examining Witnesses

Unless otherwise ordered, only one attorney for each party may examine or cross-examine a witness.

General L.R. 47. Selecting Jurors

(a) Voir Dire of Prospective Jurors. The Court may conduct the voir dire examination of prospective jurors or permit the parties to do so. When the Court conducts voir dire, the parties may submit written proposed questions to the Court and may request additional questions in light of prospective jurors' responses to the Court's examination.

(b) Juror Questionnaires. Juror questionnaires shall be available for inspection from the Clerk on the Thursday before jury selection is scheduled to commence. The information contained in the questionnaires is to be used for purposes of jury selection only. Only counsel, employees of counsel, and the parties are authorized to view juror information. Absent a Court order, this information shall not be disclosed to others and shall be destroyed after jury selection is complete.

The attorneys and pro se parties are expected to examine the juror questionnaires available in the Jury Section of the Clerk's Office prior to jury selection in order to become familiar with each potential venire person's background, occupation, etc. During the jury selection proceedings, the Court will have each venire member identified by number only, thus enabling the parties to match each potential juror with his/her background information.

(c) Jury Selection Procedure. A venire shall be drawn according to the Court's plan for the qualification and random selection of petit jurors. Once the Judge or a Deputy Clerk, in the presence of all parties and their counsel, has generally qualified the venire, a panel of prospective jurors will be identified for each particular action. After questioning the members of the panel and resolving all strikes for cause, the Court will ask the parties to exercise their peremptory strikes simultaneously and in writing. Beginning with the first qualified juror remaining on the panel, the strike list will contain a sufficient number of prospective jurors necessary to establish a jury of a predetermined size once the parties have had an opportunity to use all authorized peremptory strikes. If all strikes are not used, or if any of the strikes overlap, resulting in more qualified jurors available for service than are needed, the jury will be composed of the previously determined number of jurors beginning with the first juror on the list. The time necessary for the parties to produce their lists of peremptory strikes is ten (10) minutes, unless, for good cause shown, the Court extends that time. Once all strikes have been recorded, the parties shall be afforded an opportunity to review the strikes of any opposing party in order to present any objections or motions related to those strikes. Once any and all objections or motions are resolved, the Deputy Clerk shall be asked to seat the jury. After the Deputy Clerk has identified and seated the jury, the parties shall be prepared to confirm that the jury seated in the jury box is the jury that was selected.

(d) Peremptory Challenges. Each party shall be entitled to the number of peremptory challenges authorized by 28 U.S.C. § 1870 in civil cases and by Fed. R. Crim. P. 24 in criminal cases. Within the discretion of the Judge, additional peremptory challenges may be allowed in any case. In civil cases where there are multiple Plaintiffs or Defendants, requests for additional peremptory challenges shall be filed no later than the final pretrial conference. In criminal cases involving multiple Defendants, the Judge may allow additional challenges and authorize the Defendants to exercise those challenges separately or jointly, so long as they are requested at least seven (7) days in advance of jury selection.

(e) Communications with Jurors. Parties, attorneys, and the agents or employees of parties or attorneys may not approach, interview, or communicate with a venire member or juror before, during, or after trial, except with leave of Court. Such leave may be granted only upon notice to opposing counsel (or pro se opponent) and a showing of good cause. A juror must be advised at the outset of any communication that his or her participation is voluntary. Any juror contact permitted by the Court under this Rule is subject to the Court's control.

General L.R. 51. Instructions to the Jury

The parties must submit any proposed written jury instructions and, if required, a written form of verdict before the commencement of trial on a schedule established by the trial Judge. Further instructions may be submitted after the commencement of trial only as permitted by the Court.

(b) Transfer of Civil Cases to Magistrate Judges. In any case assigned to a District Judge pursuant to Civil Local Rule 3(b), if the parties consent to the Magistrate Judge's jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(c) and follow the procedure set forth in General Local Rule 73(c)(4), the District Judge may refer the case to the Magistrate Judge by written order.

(c) Direct Assignment of Civil Cases to Magistrate Judges. The Clerk shall randomly assign to the full-time Magistrate Judges a percentage of the Court's total civil docket in an effort to enhance the opportunity for litigants to more fully utilize the services of the Magistrate Judges. The specific percentage of cases referred shall be set by the District Judges and may be changed from time to time in their discretion. The following procedure applies:

(1) The Clerk shall establish a method of randomly selecting civil cases for reference to the Magistrate Judges of this District. Once identified, the cases shall be referred to all Magistrate Judges on an equal rotation basis, with the total number referred not exceeding the percentage established by the District Judges.

In accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 and 5, it shall be the responsibility of Plaintiffs to immediately serve a copy of this Notice on those parties named as Defendants but who have not appeared.

(3) Prior to formal reference under sub-paragraph (4) of this Rule, any party to a referred action may obtain reassignment to a District Judge by sending the Clerk a Request for Reassignment to a United States District Judge for Trial and Disposition. All parties are free to obtain reassignment in accordance with this sub-paragraph without the imposition of any adverse consequences.

(4) Should all parties in a referred action agree to authorize a Magistrate Judge to exercise consent jurisdiction, they shall execute and file a joint form of consent that complies with the requirements of the Consent to Exercise of Jurisdiction by a United States Magistrate Judge (Appendix of Forms). Upon the filing of this form, the action shall be referred to the appropriate District Judge for the entry of a formal reference, signifying his or her final approval of the reference.

(5) If the parties do not execute and file a joint consent form prior to the deadline established by the Magistrate Judge, the Clerk will reassign the action to a District Judge.

(6) In his or her discretion, the Magistrate Judge to whom any action is referred may order reassignment sua sponte. (i) Standards for Professional Conduct; Obligations. Attorneys appearing before this Court shall adhere to this Court's Local Rules, the Alabama Rules of Professional Conduct, and the Alabama Standards for Imposing Lawyer Discipline. Attorney misconduct, whether or not occurring in the course of an attorney/client relationship, may be disciplined by disbarment, suspension, reprimand, monetary sanctions, removal from this Court's roster of attorneys eligible for practice before it, or such other sanction as the Court may deem appropriate.

General L.R. 83.4. Attorney Discipline

(a) Discipline. When alleged attorney misconduct is brought to the attention of the Court, whether by a Judge, any lawyer admitted to practice before the Court, any officer or employee of the Court, or otherwise, the Court may, in its discretion, dispose of the matter through the use of its inherent, statutory, or other powers; refer the matter to an appropriate State Bar agency for investigation and disposition; refer the matter to the Local Grievance Committee as hereinafter defined; or take any other action the Court deems appropriate. These procedures are not mutually exclusive.

(b) Grievance Committee. The Judges of this Court may appoint a standing Committee of not less than five (5) members of the Bar to address alleged attorney misconduct. A majority of the Committee shall constitute a quorum.

(1) Purpose and Function. The purpose and function of such appointed Committee shall be to conduct, upon referral by the Court, investigations, inquiries, and hearings, where appropriate, of alleged misconduct of any member of the Bar of this Court; and to submit written findings and recommendations to the Court thereafter. Members of a Grievance Committee, while serving in their official capacities, shall be considered to be representatives of and acting under the powers and immunities of the Court, and shall enjoy such immunities while acting in good faith in such capacity.

(2) Powers of Committee. The Committee shall be vested with such powers as are necessary to conduct the proper and expeditious disposition of any matter referred by the Court, including the power to compel the attendance of witnesses, to take or cause to be taken the deposition of any witnesses, to secure the production of documentary evidence, and to administer oaths and those powers described elsewhere in these Rules.

(c) Disciplinary Proceedings.

(1) Preliminary Investigation. Upon referral of a disciplinary matter, the Committee shall conduct a preliminary investigation to determine whether a formal disciplinary proceeding should be initiated. If no such finding is made, the Committee shall file with the Court its written recommendations for disposition of the matter, whether by dismissal, admonition, deferral, or any other action. In cases of dismissal, the attorney who is the subject of the investigation need not be notified of the proceeding. All investigative reports, records, and recommendations generated by or on behalf of the Committee under such circumstances shall remain strictly confidential. Such reports, records, and recommendations shall be kept with the Clerk in a sealed electronic file to be opened only upon written order of the Court and shall be destroyed five (5) years after final disposition of the matter.

(2) Probable Cause, Show Cause Order. Upon a finding that probable cause exists, the Committee shall file with the Court a written report of its investigation, stating with specificity the facts supporting its conclusions, and shall apply to the Court for issuance of an order requiring the attorney to show cause within 30 days after service of that order why the attorney should not be disciplined. The Court may, upon concurrence by a majority of its members, issue an appropriate show cause order. Such issued show cause order shall be accompanied by a copy of the Committee's written report for service upon the attorney. Such written report shall otherwise remain confidential.

(3) Rescission of Show Cause Order, Hearing. The Committee shall act on the attorney's response either by recommending the Court rescind its Order To Show Cause or by conducting a confidential hearing on the matter, affording the attorney an opportunity to be represented by counsel, to present witnesses and other evidence, and to confront and cross-examine witnesses in a proceeding guided by the spirit of the Federal Rules of Evidence. A record shall be made of all proceedings. Unless he or she asserts a privilege or right properly available under applicable Federal or State law, the attorney may be called as a witness by the Committee to make specific and complete disclosure of all matters material to the charge of misconduct.

(4) Recommendations. Upon completion of the proceeding, the Committee shall make its confidential written report and recommendation to the Court. The Committee shall include findings of fact as to the charges and recommendations regarding whether or not the accused attorney should be found guilty of misconduct justifying disciplinary actions by the Court, and recommendations as to the disciplinary measures to be applied by the Court. A record of the proceedings, which shall include an appropriate index, a transcript of the proceedings, all pleadings, and all evidentiary exhibits, shall accompany the report. A copy of the report and recommendation shall also be furnished to the attorney.

(5) Actions by Court. The Court, by majority vote of its Judges, shall take such further action as it deems appropriate.

(d) Conviction of Crime.

(1) Suspension. Upon the filing with this Court of a certified copy of a judgment of conviction demonstrating an attorney has been convicted in a Court of competent jurisdiction of a felony or a misdemeanor involving moral turpitude, the Court shall enter an order suspending the attorney, unless a majority of the Judges of the Court deem such a suspension contrary to the interests of justice. The suspension shall remain in effect until further order of the Court.

(2) Proceedings. The Court may also institute such proceedings, to include Grievance Committee proceedings, to determine the extent of final discipline to be imposed upon the attorney, provided the final proceedings shall not occur until all appeals from the conviction are concluded.

(3) Reinstatement, Proceedings Then Pending. A suspension hereunder shall be terminated immediately upon the filing of a certificate demonstrating that the underlying conviction of a serious crime has been reversed. However, reinstatement shall not terminate any disciplinary proceedings then pending against the attorney, the disposition of which shall be determined by the Court utilizing the procedures herein.

(e) Discipline Imposed by Other Courts.

(1) Notification to Clerk. An attorney admitted to practice before this Court shall, upon being suspended, disbarred, or subjected to any form of public discipline by any other Court, promptly inform the Clerk of Court of such action. This Court, acting by a majority of its Judges, may refer this matter to a Grievance Committee or issue its order to the attorney to show cause, within thirty (30) days, why he or she should not be disciplined by this Court.

(2) Conclusiveness of Final Adjudication. A final adjudication in another Court that an attorney has been guilty of misconduct shall establish conclusively the misconduct for purpose of a disciplinary proceeding in this Court, unless the attorney clearly demonstrates to the Court's satisfaction that, upon the face of the record upon which the discipline in another jurisdiction is predicated:

(A) The procedure in the other jurisdiction was so lacking in notice or opportunity to be heard as to constitute a deprivation of due process; or

(B) There was such infirmity of proof establishing misconduct as to give rise to the clear conviction that this Court could not, consistent with its duty, accept as final the conclusion on that subject.

(3) Actions by Court. The Court, acting upon the attorney's response to the Show Cause Order or upon the report and recommendation of a Grievance Committee, if appointed, may take such further disciplinary action, as a majority of the Judges deem appropriate under the circumstances.

(f) Disbarment on Consent or Resignation in Other Courts.

(1) Notification to Clerk. Any attorney admitted to practice before the Court shall, upon being disbarred on consent or resigning from any other Bar while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending, promptly inform the Clerk of Court of such disbarment on consent or resignation.

(2) Removal from Roll of Attorneys. An attorney admitted to practice before this Court who shall be disbarred on consent or resign from any other Bar while an investigation into allegations of misconduct is pending shall, upon filing with this Court of a certified copy of the judgment or order accepting such disbarment on consent or resignation, cease to be permitted to practice before this Court and be stricken from the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court.

(g) Disbarment on Consent While Under Disciplinary Investigation or Prosecution, or Otherwise.

(1) Consent. Any attorney who desires to consent to disbarment by this Court for any reason, to include those related to allegations of misconduct, may consent to disbarment, but only upon delivery of an affidavit to this Court in such form and content as may be required to satisfy the Court that the consent to disbarment is:

(A) Freely and voluntarily rendered without coercion or duress and that the attorney is fully aware of the implications of so consenting; and

(B) For reasons recited within the affidavit, which the attorney acknowledges are true and form the basis for disbarment.

(2) Entry of Order of Disbarment. Upon receipt of the required affidavit, this Court shall enter its order of disbarment. However, the affidavit required pursuant to the provisions of this Rule shall not be publicly disclosed or made available for use in any other proceeding except upon order of this Court.

(h) Incompetence or Incapacity.

(1) When it appears that an attorney, for whatever reason, is failing to perform at an adequate level of competence necessary to protect his/her client's interests, the Court shall be empowered to take such remedial action as it deems appropriate to insure the attorney's maintenance of an adequate level of competency, to include, but not be restricted to:

(A) Appropriate referral of the affected attorney to such entities or parties as may assist the attorney in achieving necessary levels of competency;

(B) Limiting or restricting the attorney's practice before the Court; or

(C) Suspension from practice until compliance with competency levels is insured.

(2) Action by the Court relating to matters of attorney competency shall be taken by a majority vote of the Judges thereof after consideration of such response from the attorney, as the Court may deem appropriate.

(i) Reinstatement.

(1) After Disbarment or Suspension. An attorney suspended for three (3) months or less shall be automatically reinstated at the end of the period of suspension upon the filing with this Court of an affidavit of compliance with the provisions of the order. An attorney suspended for more than three (3) months, or disbarred, may not resume the practice of law before this Court until reinstated by order of the Court.

(2) Time of Application Following Disbarment. An attorney who has been disbarred after hearing or consent may not apply for reinstatement until the expiration of at least five (5) years from the effective date of disbarment.

(3) Hearing on Application. Petitions for reinstatement by a disbarred or suspended attorney under this Rule shall be filed with the Chief Judge of this Court. The Chief Judge may submit the petition to the Court or may, in his/her discretion, refer the petition to the Grievance Committee which shall, within thirty (30) days of the referral, schedule a hearing at which the petitioner shall have the burden of establishing by clear and convincing evidence that he or she has the moral qualifications, competency, and learning in the law required for admission to practice before this Court and that his/her resumption of the practice of law will not be detrimental to the integrity and standing of the Bar or the administration of justice, or subversive of the public interest. Upon completion of the hearing, the Committee shall make a full report to the Court. The Committee shall include its findings of fact as to the petitioner's fitness to resume the practice of law and its recommendations as to whether or not the petitioner should be reinstated.

(4) Conditions of Reinstatement. If, after consideration of the Committee's report and recommendation, the Court finds that the petitioner is unfit to resume the practice of law, the petition shall be dismissed. If, after consideration of the Committee's report and recommendation, the Court finds that the petitioner is fit to resume the practice of law, the Court shall reinstate the petitioner, provided that the judgment may make reinstatement conditional upon the payment of all or part of the costs of the proceedings, and on the making of partial or complete restitution to all parties harmed by the conduct that led to the suspension or disbarment. Provided further, that if the petitioner has been suspended or disbarred for five (5) years or more, reinstatement may be conditioned, in the discretion of the Court, upon the furnishing of proof of competency and learning in the law, which proof may include certification by the Bar Examiners of a state or other jurisdiction of the attorney's successful completion of an examination for admission to practice subsequent to the date of suspension or disbarment. Provided further, that reinstatement may be subject to any conditions that the Court in its discretion deems appropriate.

(5) Successive Petitions. No petition for reinstatement under this Rule shall be filed within one (1) year following an adverse judgment upon a petition for reinstatement filed by or on behalf of the same person.

(6) Deposit for Costs of Proceedings. Petitions for reinstatement under this Rule shall be accompanied by a deposit in an amount to be set from time to time by the Court, in consultation with the Grievance Committee, to cover anticipated costs of the reinstatement proceeding.

(7) Oath and Fee Upon Reinstatement. Any attorney disbarred or suspended from practice in this Court and subsequently readmitted shall take the oath, pay the fee then prescribed, and sign the roll of attorneys for this District.

(j) Attorneys Specially Admitted Subject to Discipline. Whenever an attorney applies to be admitted or is admitted to this Court for purposes of a particular proceeding (pro hac vice), the attorney shall be deemed thereby to have conferred disciplinary jurisdiction upon this Court for any alleged misconduct arising in the course of, or in the preparation for, such a proceeding which is a violation of this Court's Local Rules and/or the Rules of Professional Conduct adopted by this Court as provided in these Rules.

(k) Appointment of Counsel. Whenever, at the direction of the Court or upon request of the Grievance Committee, counsel is to be appointed pursuant to these Rules to investigate or assist in the investigation of misconduct, to prosecute or assist in the prosecution of disciplinary proceedings, or to assist in the disposition of a reinstatement petition filed by a disciplined attorney, this Court, by a majority vote of its active Judges, may appoint as counsel any active member of the Bar of this Court, or may, in its discretion, appoint the disciplinary agency of the highest Court of the state wherein the Court sits, or other disciplinary agency having jurisdiction.

(l) Service of Paper and Other Notices. Service of an Order to Show Cause instituting a formal disciplinary proceeding shall be made by personal service or by registered or certified mail addressed to the affected attorney at the address shown on the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court. Service of any other papers or notices required by these Rules shall be deemed to have been made if such paper or notice is addressed to the attorney at the address shown on the roll of attorneys admitted to practice before this Court; or to counsel or the respondent's attorney at the address indicated in the most recent pleading, document, or other paper filed by them in the course of any proceeding.

(m) Duties of the Clerk.

(1) Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been convicted of any crime, the Clerk shall determine whether the Court in which such conviction occurred has forwarded a certificate of such conviction to this Court. If a certificate has not been so forwarded, the Clerk shall promptly obtain a certificate and file it with this Court.

(2) Upon being informed that an attorney admitted to practice before this Court has been subjected to discipline by another Court, the Clerk shall determine whether a certified or exemplified copy of the order has been filed with this Court, and, if not, the Clerk shall promptly obtain a certified or exemplified copy of the disciplinary judgment or order and file it with this Court.

(3) Whenever it appears that any person, who has been convicted of any crime, or disbarred, suspended, censured, or disbarred on consent by this Court, is admitted to practice law in any other jurisdiction or before any other Court, the Clerk shall, within fourteen (14) days of that conviction, disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, transmit to the disciplinary authority in such other jurisdiction, or for such other Court, a certificate of the conviction or a certified or exemplified copy of the judgment or order of disbarment, suspension, censure, or disbarment on consent, as well as the last known office and residence addresses of the disciplined attorney.

(4) The Clerk shall, likewise, promptly notify the National Lawyer Regulatory Data Bank operated by the American Bar Association of any order imposing public discipline on any attorney admitted to practice before this Court.

(n) Retained Powers. Nothing contained in this Rule shall be construed to deny the Court its inherent power to maintain control over the proceedings conducted before it or to deny the Court those powers derived from statute, rules of procedure, or other rules of court.

(o) Sanctions. The Court may impose appropriate sanctions on any party or attorney who fails to comply with a Local Rule. The Local Rules are intended to be enforced primarily upon the Court's own initiative. A party should not file a motion seeking sanctions for alleged non-compliance with a Local Rule unless the alleged violation is egregious or unfairly prejudicial.

General L.R. 83.5. Persons Proceeding Without Counsel

(a) All persons proceeding pro se shall be bound by, and must comply with, all Local Rules of this Court, as well as the Federal Rules of Civil and Criminal Procedure, unless excused by Court order.

(b) Any person proceeding pro se must, at all times during the pendency of the action to which he or she is a party, keep the Clerk informed of his or her current address and telephone number. A pro se party must promptly notify the Clerk of any change of address or telephone number. Failure to comply with this Rule may result in sanction, including dismissal of a pro se plaintiff's action or entry of judgment against a pro se defendant.

The forms in the Appendix suffice under these Local Rules and illustrate the information that the Court deems necessary in those situations applicable to each form. When required by these Local Rules, the prescribed form must be utilized.

General L.R. 86. Effective Date

These General, Civil, and Criminal Local Rules are effective as of August 1, 2015 and, subject to General Local Rule 1(d), apply to all actions pending on that date.

General L.R. 87. Reference of Bankruptcy Matters

Pursuant to Title 28, United States Code, Section 157(a) and the General Order of reference entered July 10, 1984, all cases arising under Title 11 of the United States Code, and proceedings arising in or related to cases under Title 11, United States Code, have been referred to the Bankruptcy Judges of this District and shall be commenced in the Bankruptcy Court pursuant to the Local Bankruptcy Rules.

PART B: CIVIL RULES

I. SCOPE OF RULES

Civil L.R. 1. Scope of Rules

The Civil Rules set forth in Part B govern all civil proceedings in this District.

II. COMMENCING AN ACTION; SERVICE OF PROCESS AND PAPERS

Civil L.R. 3. Commencing an Action

(a) Civil Cover Sheet. A Civil Cover Sheet (AO Form JS 44) must accompany each civil action or notice of removal presented for filing.

(b) Civil Case Assignments. Except as provided in General Local Rule 73(c), all civil cases are randomly assigned to both a District Judge and a Magistrate Judge. As provided in General Local Rule 73(b), the parties may in any case consent to the Magistrate Judge's jurisdiction.

(c) Assigning Related Actions. Where the Civil Cover Sheet discloses a pending related civil action, the new civil action will be assigned to the same Judges as the pending action. Factors to be considered in determining whether the actions are related include whether the actions arise from substantially the same transaction or events or involve substantially the same parties or property. The Judge to whom the action with the lower case number is assigned will resolve any dispute as to whether the actions are related.

(d) Re-Filed Actions. Whenever an action terminated by entry of a notice or order of dismissal is re-filed without a substantial change in issues or parties, it shall be assigned or transferred to the Judges to whom the original action was assigned, unless otherwise ordered by the Chief Judge.

Civil L.R. 4. Service of Process

(a) Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the following procedures for service of process shall be followed in this District:

(1) Service by Summons. If service is completed by summons, the party or person making service shall file proof thereof within seven (7) days of the date of service.

(2) Waiver of Service. If service is waived, Plaintiff shall file the waiver of service with the Court within seven (7) days after receipt of the waiver.

(3) Notice of Service Attempt. If within forty-five (45) days after the filing of the Complaint, Plaintiff has neither completed service by summons nor received a waiver of service, Plaintiff shall file a notice describing the action taken by Plaintiff to complete service and the results of those efforts.

(b) Service Made by the Court. When the Court orders service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(c)(3), the Court shall utilize the procedures set forth in Standing Order No. 17 to ensure that service is completed in the most efficient and cost-effective manner.

Civil L.R. 5. Filing Discovery Materials and Exhibits

(a) Discovery Materials Filed with Motions. If discovery materials are germane to any motion or response, only the relevant portions of the material shall be filed with the motion or response.

(b) Notice to Clerk of Tendered Discovery. Whenever any discovery material is served, counsel shall contemporaneously file a notice identifying the date of service and the nature of the material.

(c) Duties of Custodian of Discovery. During the pendency of any action, the custodian of any discovery material shall provide all other parties reasonable access to the material and an opportunity to duplicate the material at the expense of the copying party. No other person may obtain a copy of any discovery material from its custodian except on motion and with leave of Court, upon payment of the expense of the copy.

III. PLEADINGS AND MOTIONS

Civil L.R. 7. Form of Motions and Other Papers

(a) Form of Motion. Every motion must state the statute, rule, or legal or equitable principle pursuant to which it is made.

(b) Movant's Supporting Materials. Except as ordered by the Court, any motion filed pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) or 56 must be supported by a brief. For other motions, supporting briefs are required where necessary to set forth the legal and factual basis for the relief sought. A supporting brief may be included within the body of the motion. Absent Court order otherwise, any brief, exhibit, or other supporting paper must be filed contemporaneously with the motion. Failure to file a brief in support of a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) or 56 is sufficient cause to deny the motion, and failure to file a brief may be sufficient cause to deny any other motion.

(c) Non-Movant's Response. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the non-movant must file any brief, exhibit, or other paper in opposition to a motion, except a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, within fourteen (14) days of service of the motion. Failure to file a brief in opposition to any motion, other than one under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b) or 56, may be sufficient cause to grant the motion.

(d) Movant's Reply. Unless the Court orders otherwise, any reply in support of a motion, except a motion under Fed. R. Civ. P. 56, must be filed within seven (7) days of service of the non-movant's response.

(e) Length of Briefs. Principal briefs in support of, or in opposition to, any motion must not exceed thirty (30) pages, and reply briefs must not exceed fifteen (15) pages. These limitations exclude any caption, cover page, table of contents, table of authorities, and signature block. No brief exceeding these page limitations may be filed unless the Court has previously granted leave to file a brief in excess of these limits.

(f) Citations.

(1) This Court does not prohibit or restrict the citation of unreported or non-precedential opinions, decisions, orders, judgments, or other written dispositions.

(2) If a party cites a judicial opinion, order, judgment, or other written disposition that is not available in a publicly accessible electronic database, the party must file and serve a copy of the document with the brief or other paper in which it is cited.

(3) If pertinent and significant authority comes to a party's notice after the briefs have been filed, but before decision, a party may promptly advise the Court by notice setting forth the citations and stating the reason the authority was not cited in the party's brief. The notice must specifically refer either to a page of the brief(s) already filed or to a point argued orally. The notice may not exceed two (2) pages and must not present a new argument. No response may be filed unless the presiding Judge so authorizes.

(g) Courtesy Copy of Supporting Papers. If a party's exhibits in support of, or in opposition to, a motion exceed fifty (50) pages in the aggregate, that party must submit a courtesy copy to chambers. The courtesy copy must be printed from PACER (i.e., after electronic filing) so that the CM/ECF PDF headers, which contain the case number, docket number, and page number, appear at the top of every page. Additionally, where exhibits are numerous, it is helpful to the Court to receive well-organized, tabbed binders of double-sided copies, along with an index or table of contents.

(h) Oral Argument. In its discretion, the Court may rule on any motion without oral argument. Oral argument requests must contain specific reasons why oral argument would be helpful. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, oral arguments will not exceed thirty (30) minutes, apportioned among the participants as appropriate.

(i) Modification of Provisions in Particular Cases. The Court in any case may provide by order or other notice to the parties that different or additional provisions regarding motion practice apply.

Civil L.R. 7.1. Disclosure Statements

(a) All non-governmental artificial entities appearing as parties or amici curiae shall file a Disclosure Statement along with the initial filing on behalf of that party or amicus. Where filing the Disclosure Statement with the initial filing is impossible or impracticable, it shall be filed within seven (7) days after the initial filing, or within such other time as the Court may direct.

(b) The Disclosure Statement shall identify the represented entity's general nature and shall identify all parents, subsidiaries, partners, members, managers, trustees, affiliates, and similarly related persons and entities. Members of a trade association or professional association need not be identified. For purposes of this Rule, an "affiliate" is an entity that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, is controlled by, or is under common control with, the specified entity; a "parent" is an affiliate that controls such entity directly, or indirectly through intermediaries; a "subsidiary" is an affiliate controlled by such entity directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries; and a "trade association" is a continuing association of numerous organizations or individuals operated for the purpose of promoting the general commercial, professional, legislative or other interests of the membership.

(c) The purpose of the Disclosure Statement is to enable the Judges of this Court to determine the need for recusal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 455 or otherwise. Counsel shall have the continuing obligation to amend the Disclosure Statement to reflect relevant changes.

(d) The form of the Disclosure Statement is set forth in the Appendix of Forms attached to these Rules.

(e) A party who commences a civil action using a pseudonym instead of his or her actual name must file a Disclosure Statement, under seal, identifying the Plaintiff's actual name.

Civil L.R. 8. Pleading Jurisdiction

A pleading or notice of removal asserting jurisdiction based on diversity of citizenship must identify the citizenship of each party to the litigation. If any party is a corporation, the pleading or notice must identify both the state of incorporation and the state in which the corporation has its principal place of business. If any party is an unincorporated association, limited liability company, or partnership, the pleading or notice must identify the citizenship of all members. A notice of removal asserting diversity jurisdiction must also assert a factual basis supporting the allegation that the requisite amount is in controversy.

Civil L.R. 9. Pleading Special Matters

(a) All persons applying or petitioning for release from custody under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 or 28 U.S.C. § 2254, or moving under 28 U.S.C. § 2255 to challenge a sentence imposed by this Court, must file their application, petition, or motion with the Clerk using forms available from the Court. The Clerk will provide the forms and directions for their preparation without charge.

(b) When an application for release from custody is filed, the respondent is not required to file an answer or respond to the application unless directed by the Court. The Court may apply any of the Rules Governing 28 U.S.C. § 2254 Cases in the United States District Courts to applications for release from custody under 28 U.S.C. § 2241.

(c) Prisoners appearing pro se who commence an action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 for deprivations of federal rights by persons acting under color of state law must file the complaint with the Clerk using the form available from the Court. The Clerk will provide the forms and directions for their preparation without charge.

Civil L.R. 10. Form of Pleadings

(a) Paragraphs. A party, including a party proceeding pro se, must state its claims or defenses in numbered paragraphs, each limited as far as practicable to a single set of circumstances.

(b) Answers and Replies. An answer or reply must respond in numbered paragraphs corresponding to the paragraphs of the pleading to which it refers.

(c) Pseudonyms. A party who commences a civil action using a pseudonym instead of his or her actual name must, within twenty-one (21) days of service of the complaint, file and serve a motion seeking permission to proceed using a pseudonym.

Civil L.R. 12. Motions to Dismiss or Motions for Judgment on the Pleadings in Pro Se Litigation

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, in litigation involving a pro se party where matters outside the pleadings are presented to the Court, in conjunction with a motion to dismiss pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) or a motion for judgment on the pleadings pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(c), the procedure set forth in Civil Local Rule 56(a) applies.

Civil L.R. 15. Amended and Supplemental Pleadings

(a) Any amendment to a pleading, whether filed as a matter of course or upon a motion to amend, must reproduce the entire pleading as amended and may not incorporate any prior pleading by reference.

(b) A motion to amend a pleading must state specifically what changes are sought by the proposed amendments. The proposed amended pleading must be filed as an attachment to the motion to amend.

(c) If the Court grants the motion to amend, the party must promptly file the amended pleading. If a responsive pleading is required, any party that has appeared in the action and was served with the proposed amended pleading must serve an answer or other responsive pleading within fourteen (14) days after the Court grants the motion to amend. The time for a party that has not appeared in the action to serve an answer or other responsive pleading begins to run when that party is properly served with the amended pleading.

Civil L.R. 16. Pretrial Conferences; Scheduling; Management; Alternative Dispute Resolution

(a) Preliminary Pretrial Conferences.

(1) A Judge may require the parties to appear to consider the future conduct of the case. The parties must be prepared to discuss the matters enumerated in Fed. R. Civ.P. 16 and 26(f). The parties also should be prepared to state:

(A) The nature of the case;

(B) Any contemplated motions;

(C) The parties' discovery plan, including the amount of further discovery each party contemplates, the approximate time for completion of discovery, and any disputes regarding discovery;

(D) Whether the parties anticipate the disclosure or discovery of electronically stored information;

(E) Whether the parties have reached an agreement for asserting post-production claims of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, and whether the parties request the Judge to enter an order including the agreement;

(F) Whether settlement discussions have occurred;

(G) The basis for the Court's subject matter jurisdiction; and

(H) Such other matters as may affect further scheduling of the case for final disposition.

(2) The Judge may enter any orders necessary to aid in scheduling the action, including dates for further conferences, schedules for filing and briefing motions, and cutoff dates for completing discovery. The Judge also may enter any orders permitted under Fed. R. Civ. P. 16, or 26(f), or Civil Local Rule 26(e).

(3) Scheduling orders are not necessary in the following categories of actions: administrative proceedings, including all Social Security cases; habeas corpus cases or other proceedings to challenge a criminal conviction or sentence; pro se prisoner litigation; actions by the United States to recover benefit payments or to collect on a student loan guaranteed by the United States; cases in which the only relief sought is an order compelling arbitration or enforcing an arbitration award; actions to enforce or quash an administrative summons or subpoena; proceedings ancillary to proceedings in other Courts; and mortgage foreclosure actions in which an agency of the United States is a secured party. Fed. R. Civ. P. 16(b)(1).

(b) Final Pretrial Conference. Counsel and any parties proceeding pro se may be required to appear for a final pretrial conference to consider the subjects specified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 16 or to consider other matters determined by the Judge. Unless excused by the Judge, principal trial counsel for each party must appear at the final pretrial conference.

(c) Joint Pretrial Document.

(1) Unless otherwise ordered, the parties must file a joint pretrial document seven (7) days before the final pretrial conference. The joint pretrial document must be signed by the attorneys (or the parties personally, if not represented by counsel) who will try the case. The joint pretrial document shall contain the information required by the forms adopted by the Judges of this Court. A copy of the assigned Judge's form order shall be attached to each Rule 16 Scheduling Order entered by the Magistrate Judges, and they are also available through the Clerk and on the Court's website. Sanctions, which may include the dismissal of the action and entry of default judgment, may be imposed if a joint pretrial document is not filed.

(2) The parties are required to confer and make a good faith effort to settle the case prior to the final pretrial conference. In preparing the joint pretrial document, the parties are expected to work together in good faith to reach stipulations that may save time during the trial.

(d) Alternative Dispute Resolution.

(1) Participation. Each Judge may conduct an Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Evaluation Conference during the early stages of case development to determine whether a civil case is appropriate for ADR. This conference may be held in conjunction with a pretrial conference or as a separate conference. If the Judge determines that a case is appropriate for ADR, the Judge may encourage the parties to participate in ADR before a Magistrate Judge or an appropriate neutral evaluator.

(2) Exemptions. The types of cases identified in Civil Local Rule 16(a)(3) are exempt from this procedure.

(3) Confidentiality. The Court, the neutral, all counsel and parties, and any other persons attending an ADR session under these Rules must treat as confidential all written and oral communications made in connection with, or during, any ADR session. Except as otherwise stipulated or ordered, the disclosure of any written or oral communication made by any party, counsel, or other participant in connection with or during any ADR session is prohibited. ADR proceedings pursuant to these Rules must be treated as compromise negotiations for purposes of all applicable rules of evidence.

(4) Early Neutral Evaluation. Early Neutral Evaluation (ENE) is a procedure in which the parties and their counsel, early in the case after an opportunity for limited discovery, meet with a neutral evaluator who is knowledgeable in the subject matter. The purpose is to reduce the cost and duration of litigation by providing an early opportunity for the parties to obtain a neutral evaluation of their case and to engage in meaningful settlement negotiations.

(A) Cases Subject to ENE. Any civil case may be referred to ENE if all parties agree. A case may be selected for ENE at the preliminary pretrial conference held pursuant to Civil Local Rule 16(a), or at any other time by stipulation of the parties.

(B) ENE Process. Within thirty (30) days of the case being referred to ENE, the neutral evaluator, an experienced attorney with expertise in the subject matter of the case, hosts a confidential and informal meeting of clients (companies are to be represented by someone knowledgeable about the case and with full settlement authority) and lead counsel at which each side, through counsel, clients or witnesses, presents evidence and arguments supporting its case (without regard to the Rules of Evidence and without direct or cross-examination of witnesses). The neutral evaluator identifies areas of agreement, clarifies and focuses the issues, and encourages the parties to enter into procedural and substantive stipulations. The neutral evaluator, in private, prepares an evaluation that includes an assessment of the case, the reasoning that supports the assessment, and, where feasible, an estimate of the likelihood of liability and range of damages. Before the neutral evaluator provides the evaluation to the parties, the parties may engage in settlement discussions facilitated by the neutral evaluator. If settlement does not result, the neutral evaluator will present the parties with the evaluation. The neutral evaluator's evaluation is not shared with the trial Judge.

(C) Preservation of Right to Trial. The neutral evaluator has no power to impose settlement. The confidential evaluation is non-binding. If no settlement is reached, the case remains on the litigation track.

(D) The Neutral Evaluator. The neutral evaluator must have experience in the substantive legal area of the lawsuit. The parties must attempt to agree upon a neutral evaluator. If the parties cannot agree upon a neutral evaluator, the trial Judge will appoint an available neutral evaluator. The neutral evaluator may be, but need not be, a member of the Panel of Neutrals under the District's Alternative Resolution Plan. The trial Judge may, but is not required to, appoint one of the Magistrate Judges of this District as the neutral evaluator.

(E) Compensation of Neutral Evaluators other than Magistrate Judges. Neutral evaluators volunteer their preparation time and the first four (4) hours in an ENE session. After four (4) hours in an ENE session, the neutral evaluator may either

- (i) Continue to volunteer his or her time, or
- (ii) Give the parties the option of concluding the session or paying the neutral evaluator for additional time at sixty percent (60%) of the neutral evaluator's standard hourly billing rate, to be split equally among the parties unless they agree to a different apportionment.

The ENE session will continue only if all parties and the neutral evaluator agree. After eight (8) hours in one or more ENE sessions, if all the parties agree that further assistance is desired, the neutral evaluator may charge his or her standard hourly billing rate or such other rate that is acceptable to the neutral evaluator and all parties.

IV. PARTIES [Reserved]

V. DISCLOSURES AND DISCOVERY

Civil L.R. 26. Duty to Disclose; General Provisions Governing Discovery

(a) Conference of the Parties; Planning for Discovery. The parties' discovery plan must indicate whether they anticipate any party will be required to disclose or be requested to produce electronically stored information. If so, the parties must consider:

- (1) The reasonable accessibility of electronically stored information and the burdens and expense of discovery of electronically stored information;
- (2) The format and media for the production of electronically stored information;
- (3) Measures taken to preserve potentially discoverable electronically stored information from alteration or destruction;
- (4) Procedures for asserting post-production claims of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material; and
- (5) Other issues in connection with the discovery of electronically stored information.

(b) Disclosure of Expert Testimony.

(1) Each party must disclose to every other party the substance of all evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 702, 703, or 705 that the party may use at trial, including the evidence of witnesses who have not been retained or specially employed to provide testimony, subject to the following:

(A) Each party must provide the written report required under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B) for a witness who has been retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony or one whose duties, as the party's employee, regularly involve giving expert testimony.

(B) A person, including a treating physician, who has not been retained or specially employed to provide expert testimony, or whose duties as the party's employee do not regularly involve giving expert testimony, may be used to present evidence under Fed. R. Evid. 702, 703, or 705 only if the party offering the evidence discloses to every other party the information identified in Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(B)(i), although a report written and signed by the witness is not required.

(2) Absent a stipulation or a Court order, disclosures required under this Rule must be made in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(a)(2)(C).

(c) Completion of Discovery. All discovery, including the filing of motions to compel, must be completed before the date established in the Rule 16 Scheduling Order. Completion of discovery means that discovery (including depositions to preserve testimony for trial) must be scheduled to allow depositions to be completed, interrogatories and requests for admissions to be answered, and documents to be produced before the deadline and in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. For good cause, which typically requires a showing that the parties have diligently pursued discovery, the Court may extend the time during which discovery may occur or may reopen discovery.

(d) Standard Definitions Applicable to All Discovery.

(1) The full text of the definitions set forth in subparagraph (2) is deemed incorporated by reference in all discovery, and may not be varied by litigants, but does not preclude:

(A) The definition of other terms specific to the particular litigation;

(B) The use of abbreviations; or

(C) A more narrow definition of a term defined in subparagraph (2).

(2) Definitions. The following definitions apply to all discovery:

(A) Communication. The term “communication” means the transmittal of information (in the form of facts, ideas, inquiries, or otherwise).

(B) Document. The term “document” is defined to be synonymous in meaning and equal in scope to the usage of this term in Fed. R. Civ. P. 34(a). A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

(C) To Identify.

(i) With Respect to Persons. When referring to a person, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the person’s full name, present or last known address, and when referring to a natural person, additionally, the present or last known place of employment. Once a person has been identified in accordance with this subparagraph, only the name of that person need be listed in response to subsequent discovery requesting the identification of that person.

(ii) With Respect to Documents. When referring to documents, “to identify” means to give, to the extent known, the type of document; general subject matter; date of the document; and author(s), addressee(s), and recipient(s).

(D) Person. The term “person” is defined as any natural person or any business, legal, or governmental entity, or association.

(e) Confidentiality of Discovery Materials.

(1) Upon a showing of good cause, the Court may enter a protective order regarding the confidentiality of all, or—more likely—portions of, documents produced in the course of discovery, answers to interrogatories, answers to requests for admission, and deposition testimony.

(2) At the conclusion of the litigation, all material not received in evidence and treated as confidential under this Rule must be returned to the originating party. If the parties so stipulate, the material may be destroyed.

(f) Filing Papers Under Seal. A party seeking to file a document under seal must follow the procedure set forth in General Local Rule 5.2.

(a) Limitation on Interrogatories.

(1) Any party may serve upon any other party no more than twenty-five (25) written interrogatories. The twenty-five (25) permissible interrogatories may not be expanded by the creative use of subparts.

(2) For the purpose of computing the number of interrogatories served:

(A) Parties represented by the same attorney or law firm are regarded as one party.

(B) Interrogatories inquiring about the names and locations of persons having knowledge of discoverable information or about the existence, location, or custodian of documents or physical evidence do not count toward the twenty-five (25) interrogatory limit.

(3) More than twenty-five (25) interrogatories may be served on a party only if that party agrees in writing or the Court so orders. A party seeking to serve more than twenty-five (25) interrogatories may move the Court for permission only after seeking the agreement of the party to whom the additional interrogatories would be served. If a party desires to serve additional interrogatories, the party must promptly consult with the party to whom the additional interrogatories would be propounded and attempt to reach a written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional interrogatories. The stipulation allowing additional interrogatories to be served should not be filed with the Court except in connection with a motion to compel answers. If a stipulation cannot be reached, the party seeking to serve additional interrogatories may move the Court for permission to serve additional interrogatories.

(4) The Court will not compel a party to answer any interrogatories served in violation of this Rule.

(b) Answering Interrogatories. An objection or an answer to an interrogatory must reproduce the interrogatory to which it refers.

Civil L.R. 34. Producing Documents

A response or an objection to a request for production of documents must reproduce the request to which it refers.

Civil L.R. 36. Requests for Admission

A response or an objection to a request for admission must reproduce the request to which it refers.

Civil L.R. 37. Discovery Motions

All motions to compel disclosure or discovery pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 26-37 must be accompanied by a written certification by the movant that, after the movant in good faith has conferred or attempted to confer with the person or party failing to make disclosure or discovery in an effort to obtain it without Court action, the parties are unable to reach an accord. The statement must recite the date and time of the conference or conferences and the names of all parties participating in the conference or conferences.

VI. TRIALS

Civil L.R. 41. Dismissal of Actions

(a) Dismissal Where No Service of Process. Whenever the Plaintiff has not completed service of process within the time required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m), and the Defendant has not waived service under Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(d), the Court upon notice may dismiss the action in accordance with Fed. R. Civ. P. 4(m).

(b) Dismissal Where No Answer or Other Pleading Filed. Whenever a served Defendant has failed to answer or otherwise defend within six (6) months from the filing of the complaint and the Plaintiff has not sought default and default judgment, the Court upon notice may dismiss the action for failure to prosecute, in accordance with applicable law.

(c) Dismissal for Lack of Diligence. Whenever it appears that the Plaintiff is not diligently prosecuting the action, the Court upon notice may dismiss the action for failure to prosecute, in accordance with applicable law.

(d) Dismissal of Frivolous Action or Pleading. Whenever it appears that the Plaintiff's complaint, the Defendant's answer (including counterclaims), or any other pleading filed by a party is frivolous or interposed primarily for any improper purpose, the Court upon notice may dismiss or strike the pleading, or any portion of the pleading, in accordance with applicable law.

(e) Improper Re-Filing of Actions. No party or attorney may dismiss and re-file an action for the purpose of obtaining a different Judge.

Civil L.R. 42. Consolidation

(a) When a party moves to consolidate two or more cases, whether for a limited purpose or for all future proceedings, the motion to consolidate and supporting materials must be captioned with the case names and numbers of all cases sought to be consolidated. Service and filing must be effected in all of the cases sought to be consolidated. The motion must be decided by the Judge to whom the lowest-numbered case is assigned. If the motion is granted, the Judge to whom the lowest-numbered case is assigned will handle all future proceedings covered by the consolidation order.

(b) After two or more cases are consolidated, all papers relevant to the purposes for which consolidation was granted will be filed and docketed only in the lowest-numbered case. A notation to check the docket sheet for the lowest-numbered case will be entered on the docket sheet for each higher-numbered case.

(c) If cases are consolidated for some but not all purposes, documents relating only to a particular case will be docketed on the docket sheet for that case and be filed only in that case file.

VII. JUDGMENT

Civil L.R. 54. Costs

(a) Bill of Costs.

(1) No later than fourteen (14) days after entry of judgment, a party seeking costs must file a verified bill of costs, using forms available from the Clerk. If a timely motion pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 50(b) or 59 is filed, the bill of costs must be filed within fourteen (14) days after entry of the order resolving the motion.

(2) When an appeal is taken, the parties may jointly move to delay filing the bill of costs until after the appeal is decided. Absent Court order, an appeal will not extend the deadline for filing a bill of costs or delay the taxing of costs.

(3) Any party opposing taxation of costs must file its objections within fourteen (14) days of service of the bill of costs. The party claiming costs must serve any response within seven (7) days of service of the objections. Costs will be taxed by the Clerk on the basis of these materials.

(b) Review of Clerk's Taxation of Costs. A party may move for review of the Clerk's decision taxing costs pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 54(d) no later than seven (7) days after taxation.

Civil L.R. 56. Summary Judgment

Motions for summary judgment must comply with Fed. R. Civ. P. 56 and Civil Local Rule 7. With the exception of Social Security reviews, other actions for review of administrative agency decisions, and other actions in which a Judge relieves the parties of this Rule's requirements, the following additional requirements must be met:

(a) Movant's Supporting Materials. The movant must file a brief that includes: (1) all facts relied upon, each supported by a specific, pinpoint citation to the record; and (2) argument supported by legal authority as appropriate. The movant must also file all evidence relied upon. A movant seeking affirmative relief other than, or in addition to, monetary damages (such as declaratory or injunctive relief) must file a proposed judgment (not order or opinion) granting such relief in the form sought by the movant. No other supporting documents may be filed absent Court order.

(b) Non-Movant's Response. Unless the Court orders otherwise, the non-movant must file any response in opposition to the motion within twenty-eight (28) days of service of the motion. The non-movant's brief must include: (1) all facts relied upon, each supported by a specific, pinpoint citation to the record; (2) all challenges to the movant's asserted facts; and (3) argument supported by legal authority as appropriate. The non-movant must also file all evidence relied upon. No other supporting documents may be filed absent Court order.

(c) Movant's Reply. Unless the Court orders otherwise, any reply must be filed within fourteen (14) days of service of the non-movant's response.

(d) Effect of Uncontroverted Facts. The Court will deem uncontroverted material facts to be admitted solely for the purpose of deciding the motion for summary judgment.

(e) Stipulated Facts. Parties are encouraged to stipulate to facts. Facts so stipulated do not require references to evidentiary support.

(f) Modification of Provisions in Particular Cases. The Court may provide by order or other notice to the parties that different or additional provisions regarding summary judgment motion practice apply.

Civil L.R. 62. Supersedeas Bonds

(a) A supersedeas bond, where the judgment is for a sum of money only, must be in the amount of the judgment plus fifteen percent (15%) to cover interest and such damages for delay as may be awarded, as well as an additional $500.00 to cover costs. An appellant may move for relief from this Rule.

(b) When a money judgment also provides non-monetary relief, the Court may, on notice, grant a stay on such terms as to security and otherwise as it may deem proper.

(c) Upon approval, a supersedeas bond must be filed with the Clerk, and a copy with a notice of filing must be served promptly on the parties affected thereby. If the appellee objects to the form of the bond or to the sufficiency of the surety, the Court may conduct a hearing to resolve the objections.

VIII. PROVISIONAL AND FINAL REMEDIES

Civil L.R. 65.1. Sureties

A corporation authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States must be accepted as surety on bonds.

Civil L.R. 65.2. Security for Costs

In addition to any security required by law, the Court, at any time upon good cause shown, may order that security for costs be given by any party. Security for costs must consist of a cash deposit or a bond, with surety, in the sum of $500.00, unless otherwise ordered. The security must be conditioned to secure the payment of costs that the posting party may ultimately be ordered to pay to a party. A party may raise objections to the form, amount, or sufficiency of security for costs.

Civil L.R. 67. Deposit Into Court; Withdrawal of Monies; Registry Fee

(a) Registry Deposits. All funds to be deposited with the Court, with the exception of criminal cash bail, cost bonds, and civil garnishments, shall be deposited in accordance with the provisions of Rule 67, 28 U.S.C. §§ 2041-2042, and any other applicable law.

(b) Order and Directions for Deposit. Any party depositing money into the Court must serve the Clerk with a Court order and notice in accordance with the provisions of Fed. R. Civ. P. 67. The order must specify the amount to be deposited. If the Clerk is not served with an order in accordance with this Rule upon tender of the monies to be deposited, the Clerk will deposit funds into the Court's non-interest-bearing registry account until further order of the Court directing how to invest the funds.

(c) Non-Interest Bearing Deposits. Cost bonds, and other bonds in the form of cash, such as admiralty cost bonds, injunction cost bonds, and supersedeas bonds, are not subject to Fed. R. Civ. P. 67, nor are civil garnishment payments. Funds not subject to Rule 67 will not be deposited in interest bearing accounts, except on the special order of the Court. These funds, when received, will be deposited into the registry of the Court. Payments received on garnishments will be deposited into the Court's general deposit fund.

(d) Investment of Registry Funds.

(1) Court Registry Investment System (CRIS). Where, by order of the Court, funds on deposit with the Court are to be placed in some form of interest-bearing account, the Court Registry Investment System administered through the Administrative Office of the United States Courts will be the only investment mechanism authorized.

(2) Custodian for CRIS. The Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts is designated as custodian for the CRIS. The Director or the Director's designee will perform the duties of custodian. Funds held in the CRIS remain subject to the control and jurisdiction of the Court.

(3) Pooling and Investing of Funds. Money from each case deposited in the CRIS will be "pooled" together with those on deposit with the Treasury to the credit of other Courts in the CRIS and used to purchase Government Account Series securities through the Bureau of Public Debt, which will be held at the Treasury, in an account in the name and to the credit of the Director of the Administrative Office of the United States Courts. The pooled funds will be invested in accordance with the principles of the CRIS Investment Policy approved by the Registry Monitoring Group.

(4) Minor's Fund. A Minors' Fund is established within CRIS to invest post-adjudication deposits held on behalf of minors until their age of majority, which is often longer than one hundred (100) days. The fund improves the match between investment holdings and the length of time each minor's case remains invested, thereby capitalizing on higher-yielding securities. Minor's funds deposited with the Court shall be identified in a movant's motion to deposit sum of money and must include the estimate of the future withdrawal date and the date the minor reaches the age of majority.

(5) Individual Accounts. An account for each case will be established in the CRIS titled in the name of the case giving rise to the investment in the fund. Income generated from fund investments will be distributed to each case based on the ratio each account's principal and earnings have to the aggregate principal and the income total in the fund. Reports showing the interest earned and the principal amounts contributed in each case will be prepared and distributed to each Court participating in the CRIS and made available to litigants and their counsel.

(e) Disbursement of Funds. Funds deposited by the Clerk in accordance with this Rule will be disbursed only with prior order signed by a Judge of this Court. Funds will not be disbursed until counsel has furnished to the Clerk, in writing, the social security number or tax identification number of any and all recipients of more than ten dollars ($10.00) of the interest accrued. In any case proceeding before a Magistrate Judge by consent of all parties under 28 U.S.C. § 636(c), the Magistrate Judge may order disbursement of funds from the registry of this Court in accordance with applicable law.

(f) Designated Fiduciary Officers. The Clerk and Chief Deputy Clerk are the fiduciary officers of this Court and have the authority to sign account checks and/or withdrawal slips from CRIS accounts.

(g) Fees Assessed on Accounts. Under the authority of 28 U.S.C. §§ 1914 and 1930, the Clerk, whose fee schedules are set by the Judicial Conference of the United States, will assess a fee for the handling of all funds deposited with the Court in non-criminal proceedings and held in CRIS accounts pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2041 and Fed. R. Civ. P. 67.

Civil L.R. 67.1. Special Attorney Admission Fund

(a) Purpose of Fund. The Special Attorney Admission Fund ("the Fund") shall be maintained by the Clerk to compensate appointed counsel in civil rights actions for reasonably incurred expenses authorized by prior order of the Judge to whom the action is assigned. Compensation from the Fund is not authorized for attorney's fees or for expenses for which any other source of payment exists.

(b) Source and Administration of Funds. The funds generated from the admission fees required by General Local Rule 83.3 shall be used to establish the Fund. The Fund shall be managed in accordance with the Court's Plan for the Administration of the Special Attorney Admissions Fund.

(c) Authorization for Payment. Payments from the Fund require the order of the Chief District Judge or his/her designee, in an amount and with a priority determined by such District Judge in light of the condition of the Fund and any other pending or anticipated requests.

(d) Requests for Payment. All requests for payment from the Fund shall first be submitted in writing to the Judge assigned to the action. If the request is approved, the assigned Judge’s written authorization shall then be forwarded to the Chief Judge or his/her designee for action in accordance with subsection(c) above.

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS [Reserved]

XII. ADMIRALTY OR MARITIME CLAIMS AND ASSET FORFEITURE ACTIONS

Civil L.R. 100. Rule A – Authority, Scope, and Definitions

(a) Scope. The Rules set forth in this Part XII (Local Admiralty Rules) apply to civil actions that are governed by Rule A of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions (Supplemental Rules). All other General and Civil Local Rules are applicable in these cases, but to the extent that another Local Rule is inconsistent with the applicable Local Admiralty Rule, the Local Admiralty Rule governs.

(b) Definitions. As used in the Local Admiralty Rules, “Rule,” followed by a numeral, e.g., Rule 12, means a Federal Rule of Civil Procedure; “Rule,” followed by a capital letter, e.g., Rule C, means a Supplemental Rule; “Judicial Officer” includes both District Judges and Magistrate Judges; “keeper” means any person or entity appointed by the Marshal to take physical custody of and maintain the vessel or other property under arrest or attachment; and “substitute custodian” means the individual who, or entity that, upon motion and order of the Court, assumes the duties of the Marshal or keeper with respect to the vessel or other property that is arrested or attached.

Civil L.R. 101. Rule B – Maritime Attachment and Garnishment

When the Plaintiff invokes a state procedure in order to attach or garnish as permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or the Supplemental Rules, the process of attachment or garnishment shall identify the state law upon which the attachment or garnishment is based.

Civil L.R. 102. Rule C – Actions In Rem: Special Provisions

(a) Intangible Property. The summons issued pursuant to Rule C(3)(c) shall direct the person having control of intangible property to show cause no later than fourteen (14) days after service as to why the intangible property should not be delivered to the Court to abide the judgment. A Judicial Officer for good cause shown may lengthen or shorten the time. Service of the summons has the effect of an arrest of the intangible property and brings it within the control of the Court. Service of the summons to show cause requires a garnishee wishing to retain possession of the property to establish grounds for doing so, including specification of the measures taken to segregate and safeguard the intangible property arrested. The person who is served may deliver or pay over to the Marshal the intangible property proceeded against to the extent sufficient to satisfy the Plaintiff's claim. If such delivery or payment is made, the person served is excused from the duty to show cause. A person who asserts a right of possession or ownership may show cause as provided in Rule C(6)(a) as to why the property should not be delivered to the Court.

(b) Publication of Notice of Action and Arrest. The notice required by Rule C(4) shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks, said notice to begin not later than twenty-one (21) days following seizure, and Plaintiff's attorney shall file with the Clerk a copy of the notice as it was published. The notice shall contain:

- (1) The Court, title, and number of the action;
- (2) The date of the arrest;
- (3) The identity of the property arrested;
- (4) The name, address, and telephone number of the attorney for Plaintiff;
- (5) A statement that the claim of a person who is entitled to possession or who claims an interest pursuant to Rule C(6)(a) must be filed with the Clerk and served on the attorney for Plaintiff within fourteen (14) days after final publication;
- (6) A statement that an answer to the complaint must be filed and served within twenty-one (21) days after filing the statement of interest or right and that, otherwise, default may be entered and condemnation ordered;

(7) A statement that applications for intervention under Rule 24 by persons claiming maritime liens or other interests shall be filed within the time fixed by the Court; and

(8) The name, address, and telephone number of the Marshal, keeper, or substitute custodian.

(c) Default in Actions In Rem.

(1) Notice Required. A party seeking a default judgment in an action in rem must satisfy the Court that notice of the action and arrest of the property has been given:

(A) By publication as required in Local Admiralty Rule 102(b);

(B) By service upon the Marshal, keeper, substitute custodian, master, or other person having custody of the property; and

(C) By mailing notice to every other person who has not appeared in the action and is known to have an interest in the property.

(2) Persons with Recorded Interests.

(A) If the Defendant property is a vessel documented under the laws of the United States, Plaintiff must attempt to notify all persons named in the United States Coast Guard certificate of ownership.

(B) If the Defendant property is a vessel numbered as provided in the Federal Boat Safety Act, Plaintiff must attempt to notify the persons named in the records of the issuing authority.

(C) If the Defendant property is of such character that there exists a governmental registry of property interests and/or security interests, the Plaintiff must attempt to notify all persons named in the records of each such registry.

(d) Entry of Default and Default Judgment. After the time for filing an answer has expired, the Plaintiff may move for entry of default under Rule 55(a). The Court will enter default upon showing that:

(1) Notice has been given as required by Local Admiralty Rule 102(c)(1);

(2) Notice has been attempted as required by Local Admiralty Rule 102(c)(2), where appropriate;

(3) The time to answer by claimants of ownership to or possession of the property has expired; and

(4) No answer has been filed, or no one has appeared, to defend on behalf of the property.

The Plaintiff may move for judgment under Rule 55(b) at any time after default has been entered.

(e) Procedure for Giving Actual Notice to Mortgagee or Lien Claimant under 46 U.S.C. 31325(d)(1)(B) or (C). In those instances where actual notice is required to be given to a mortgagee or lien claimant under 46 U.S.C. 31325 (d)(1)(B) or (C), or any amendments thereto with respect to the enforcement of preferred ship mortgages and maritime liens, the said notice shall be given by certified mail, return receipt requested, at the address stated in the mortgage or notice of claim of lien, as the case may be, or such other address deemed by counsel in good faith to be better calculated to provide notice to said party.

Civil L.R. 103. Rule D – Possessory, Petitory, and Partition Actions

Return Date. In a possessory action under Rule D, a Judicial Officer may order that the statement of right or interest and answer be filed on a date earlier than twenty-one (21) days after arrest. The order may also set the date for expedited hearing of the action.

Civil L.R. 104. Rule E – Actions In Rem and Quasi In Rem: General Provisions

(a) Itemized Demand for Judgment. The demand for judgment in every complaint filed under Rule B or Rule C shall allege the dollar amount of the debt or damages for which the action was commenced. The demand for judgment shall also allege the nature of other items of damage. The amount of the special bond posted under Rule E(5)(a) may be based upon these allegations.

(b) Salvage Action Complaints. In an action for a salvage reward, the complaint shall allege the dollar value of the vessel, cargo, freight, and other property salvaged, and the dollar amount of the reward claimed.

(c) Verification of Pleadings. Every complaint in Rule B, C, and D actions shall be verified upon oath or solemn affirmation, or in the form provided by 28 U.S.C. § 1746, by a party or by an authorized officer of a corporate party. If no party or authorized corporate officer is present within the District, verification of a complaint may be made by an agent, attorney in fact, or attorney of record, who shall state the sources of the knowledge, information, and belief contained in the complaint; declare that the document verified is true to the best of his or her knowledge, information, and belief; state why verification is not made by the party or an authorized corporate officer; and state that the affiant is authorized so to verify. A verification not made by a party or authorized corporate officer will be deemed to have been made by the party as if verified personally. If the verification was not made by a party or authorized corporate officer, any interested party may move, with or without requesting a stay, for the personal oath of a party or an authorized corporate officer, which shall be procured by commission or as otherwise ordered.

(d) Review by Judicial Officer. Unless otherwise required by the Judicial Officer, the review of complaints and papers called for by Rules B(1) and C(3) does not require the affiant party or attorney to be present. The applicant for review shall include a form of order to the Clerk which, upon signature by the Judicial Officer, will direct the arrest, attachment, or garnishment sought by the applicant. In exigent circumstances, the certification of the Plaintiff, or his/her attorney, under Rules B and C shall consist of an affidavit or a declaration pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 describing in detail the facts that establish the exigent circumstances.

(e) Return of Service. The party who requests a warrant of arrest or process of attachment or garnishment shall provide instructions to the Marshal. A person specially appointed by the Court under Rule B or C, who has served process of maritime attachment and garnishment or a warrant of arrest that seized property, shall promptly file a verified return showing the name of the individual on whom the process or warrant was served, the identity of the person or entity on whom service was made, the documents served, the manner in which service was completed (e.g., personal delivery), and the address, date, and time of service.

(f) Property in Possession of United States Officer. When the property to be attached or arrested is in the custody of an employee or officer of the United States, the Marshal shall deliver a copy of the complaint and warrant of arrest or summons and process of attachment or garnishment to that officer or employee, if present, and, otherwise, to the custodian of the property. The Marshal will instruct the officer or employee or custodian to retain custody of the property until ordered to do otherwise by a Judicial Officer.

(g) Security for Costs. In an action under the Supplemental Rules, a party may move, upon notice to all parties, for an order to compel an adverse party to post security for costs with the Clerk pursuant to Rule E(2)(b). Unless otherwise ordered, the amount of security shall be $500.00. The party so ordered shall post the security within seven (7) days after the order is entered. A party who fails to post security when due may not participate further in the proceedings except by order of Court. A party may move for an order increasing the amount of security for costs.

(h) Adversary Hearing. The adversary hearing following arrest or attachment or garnishment that is called for in Rule E(4)(f) shall be conducted by a Judicial Officer promptly. The person(s) requesting the hearing shall notify all persons known to have an interest in the property of the time and place of the hearing.

(i) Appraisal. An order for appraisal of property so that security may be given or altered may be entered upon motion. If the parties do not agree in writing upon an appraiser, a Judicial Officer will appoint the appraiser. The appraiser shall be sworn to the faithful and impartial discharge of the appraiser's duties before any federal or state officer authorized by law to administer oaths. The appraiser shall give one (1) business day's notice of the time and place of making the appraisal to counsel of record. The appraiser shall promptly file the appraisal with the Clerk and serve it upon counsel of record. The moving party normally will pay the appraiser's fee, but it is a taxable cost of the action.

(j) Security Deposit for Seizure of Vessels. The first party who seeks arrest or attachment of a vessel or property aboard a vessel shall deposit with the Marshal such sums as may be required by the Marshal to cover the expenses of the Marshal including, but not limited to, dockage, keepers, maintenance, and insurance. The Marshal is not required to execute process until the deposit is made. The party shall advance additional sums from time to time, at the Marshal's request, to cover estimated expenses. A party who fails to advance such additional sums may not participate further in the proceedings except by order of the Court. The Marshal may, upon notice to all parties, petition the Court for an order to release the vessel if additional sums are not advanced within seven (7) days after the request.

(k) Intervenors' Claims.

(1) Presentation of Claim. When a vessel or other property has been arrested, attached, or garnished, and is in the hands of the Marshal or substitute custodian, anyone having a claim against the vessel or property is required to present the claim by filing an intervening complaint and obtain a warrant of arrest, and not by filing an original complaint, unless otherwise ordered by a Judicial Officer. No formal motion is required. The intervening party shall serve a copy of the intervening complaint and warrant of arrest upon all parties to the action and shall forthwith deliver a conformed copy of the complaint and warrant of arrest to the Marshal, who shall deliver the copies to the vessel or custodian of the property. Intervenors shall thereafter be subject to the rights and obligations of parties, and the vessel or property shall stand arrested, attached, or garnished by the intervenor. An intervenor shall not be required to advance a security deposit to the Marshal for seizure of a vessel as required by Local Admiralty Rule 104(j).

(2) Sharing Marshal's Fees and Expenses. An intervenor shall owe a debt to any party who has previously advanced funds to cover the expenses of the Marshal, enforceable on motion, consisting of the intervenor's share of the Marshal's fees and expenses in the proportion that the intervenor's claim bears to the sum of all the claims. If a party Plaintiff permits the vacation of an arrest, attachment, or garnishment, the remaining Plaintiffs will share the responsibility to the Marshal for fees and expenses in proportion to the remaining claims and for the duration of the Marshal's custody because of each claim.

(l) Custody of Property.

(1) Safekeeping of Property. When a vessel or other property is brought into the Marshal's custody by arrest or attachment, the Marshal shall arrange for adequate safekeeping, which may include the placing of keepers on or near the vessel. A substitute custodian, in place of the Marshal, may be appointed by order of the Court. Any application for appointment of a substitute custodian must show the name of the proposed custodian, the location of the vessel during the period of custody, and the proposed insurance coverage. Notice of the application to appoint a substitute custodian, if made concurrent with the application for arrest or attachment, need only be given to the Marshal.

(2) Insurance. The Marshal may procure insurance to protect the Marshal, keepers, and substitute custodians from liabilities assumed in arresting and holding the vessel, cargo, or other property, in performing protective services, and in maintaining the Court's custody. The party who applies for arrest or attachment shall reimburse the Marshal for premiums paid for the insurance and shall be an added insured on the policy. The party who applies for removal of the vessel, cargo, or other property to another location, for designation of a substitute custodian, or for other relief that will require an additional premium, shall reimburse the Marshal therefor. The premiums charged for the liability insurance are taxable as administrative costs while the vessel, cargo, or other property is in the custody of the Court.

(3) Cargo Handling, Repairs, and Movement of the Vessel.

(A) Following arrest or attachment of a vessel, cargo handling shall be permitted to commence or continue unless otherwise ordered by the Court. No repairs to or movement of the vessel shall take place without order of the Court. The applicant for an order shall give notice to the Marshal and to all parties of record.

(B) If an applicant shows adequate insurance to indemnify the Marshal for liability, the Court may order the Marshal to permit repairs or movement of the vessel, cargo, or other property. The costs and expenses of such activities shall be borne as ordered by the Court. Any party of record may move for an order to dispense with keepers or to remove or place the vessel, cargo, or other property at a specified facility, to designate a substitute custodian, or for similar relief. Notice of the motion shall be given to the Marshal, keeper, or substitute custodian, and to all parties of record. The Judicial Officer will require that adequate insurance on the property will be maintained by the successor to the Marshal, before issuing the order to change arrangements.

(4) Claims by Suppliers for Payment of Charges. A person who has furnished supplies or services to a vessel, cargo, or other property while in custody of the Court, who has not been paid, and who claims the right to payment as an expense of administration, shall submit an invoice to the Clerk in the form of a verified claim at any time before the vessel, cargo, or other property is released or sold. The supplier must serve copies of the claim on the Marshal, substitute custodian if one has been appointed, and all parties of record. The Court may consider the claims individually or schedule a single hearing for all claims.

(m) Sale of Property.

(1) Notice. Unless otherwise ordered, upon good cause shown, or as provided by law, notice of sale of property in an action in rem shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the District one (1) time a week for two (2) consecutive weeks with the last date of publication not less than seven (7) days immediately preceding the sale. The Marshal shall file with the Clerk a copy of the notice as it was published. The notice of sale shall state the last date on which claims can be filed against the vessel or property or proceeds of sale of same, as provided in Local Admiralty Rule 104(k)(1).

(2) Payment of Bid. These provisions apply unless otherwise ordered in the order of sale:

(A) The person whose bid is accepted shall immediately pay the Clerk the full purchase price if the bid is $1,000.00 or less;

(B) If the bid exceeds $1,000.00, the bidder shall immediately pay the Clerk a deposit of at least $1,000.00 or ten percent (10%) of the bid, whichever is greater, and shall pay the balance within three (3) business days;

(C) If an objection to the sale is filed within the period set forth in Local Admiralty Rule 104(m)(6), the bidder is excused from paying the balance of the purchase price until five (5) days after the sale is confirmed; and

(D) Payment shall be made in cash, by certified check, cashier's check, or wire transfer.

(3) Late Payment. If the successful bidder does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed, the bidder shall pay the Marshal the cost of keeping the property from the due date of the bid amount until the balance is paid, and the Marshal may refuse to release the property until this charge is paid.

(4) Default. If the successful bidder does not pay the balance of the purchase price within the time allowed, the bidder shall be in default, upon order of the Court entered in response to an appropriate motion, and the Judicial Officer may accept the second highest bid or may arrange a new sale. The defaulting bidder's deposit shall be forfeited and applied to any additional costs incurred by the Marshal because of the default, and the balance shall be retained in the registry of the Court awaiting an order.

(5) Report of Sale by Marshal. At the conclusion of the sale, the Marshal shall forthwith file a written report with the Court setting forth the notice given; the fact of the sale; the date of the sale; the names, addresses, and bid amounts of the bidders; the price obtained; and any other pertinent information.

(6) Time and Procedure for Objection to Sale. An interested person may object to the sale by filing a written objection with the Clerk within three (3) business days following the sale, serving the objection on all parties of record, the successful bidder, and the Marshal, and depositing a sum with the Marshal that is sufficient to pay the expense of keeping the property for at least seven (7) days. Payment to the Marshal of such sum shall be by certified check or cashier's check. The Court shall hold a hearing on the confirmation of the sale.

(7) Confirmation of Sale. If no objection to the sale has been timely filed, the sale shall be confirmed by order of the Court no sooner than five (5) days after the sale and no later than seven (7) days after the sale. The Marshal shall transfer title to the purchaser upon the order of the Court.

(8) Disposition of Deposits.

(A) If the objection is sustained, sums deposited by the successful bidder will be returned to the bidder forthwith. The sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the fees and expenses incurred by the Marshal in keeping the property until it is resold, and any balance remaining shall be returned to the objector. The objector will be reimbursed for the expense of keeping the property from the proceeds of a subsequent sale.

(B) If the objection is overruled, the sum deposited by the objector will be applied to pay the expense of keeping the property from the day the objection was filed until the day the sale is confirmed, and any balance remaining will be returned to the objector forthwith.

Civil L.R. 105. Rule F – Limitation of Liability

(a) Security for Costs. Unless otherwise ordered, the amount of security for costs under Rule F(1) shall be $1,000.00, and security for costs may be combined with security for value and interest, unless otherwise ordered.

(b) Order of Proof at Trial. In an action where vessel interests seek to limit their liability, the damage claimants shall offer their proof first, whether the right to limit arises as a claim or as a defense.

PART C: CRIMINAL RULES

I. SCOPE OF RULES

Criminal L.R. 1. Scope of Rules

In this District, the Criminal Rules set forth in Part C govern criminal and petty offense proceedings as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 19.

II. PRELIMINARY PROCEEDINGS [Reserved]

III. THE GRAND JURY; THE INDICTMENT; AND THE INFORMATION

Criminal L.R. 6. Grand Jury Materials

(a) Restrictions on Disclosure of Grand Jury Materials. Grand jury materials disclosed to the defense under Fed. R. Crim. P. 6(e)(3)(E) must not be disseminated in any way, other than in open Court, by the Defendant or by defense counsel except to the Defendant, to defense counsel, and to those lawyers, support staff, or investigators assisting counsel directly, or to a witness to the extent that the materials consist of the witness' own prior testimony. Use of grand jury materials disclosed under this Rule must be limited to the proceeding for which they were disclosed. This Rule does not prevent the government from seeking further restrictions by Court order on the use or dissemination of such materials.

(b) Dissemination or Use of Grand Jury Materials. Any person who obtains grand jury materials pursuant to Criminal Local Rule 6(a) is prohibited from otherwise disseminating or using the materials except by further order of the Court.

Criminal L.R. 7. Superseding Indictment or Information

When a superseding indictment or information is filed, the government must simultaneously file a brief statement describing the differences between the original and superseding charges.

Criminal L.R. 9. Delivery to Marshal of Warrant or Summons

The original of any warrant (except a search warrant) or summons issued in this District must be delivered to the Marshal. A copy of the indictment, information, complaint, "Petition for Warrant," "Summons for Offender Under Supervision," or "Petition for Action on Conditions of Pretrial Release" to which the warrant or summons relates must accompany the warrant or summons. Upon request, the Marshal may provide another agency with a copy of a warrant clearly marked "copy."

(a) Issuance of Electronic Warrant and Summons Authorized. The Clerk is authorized to sign, seal, and issue warrants and summonses electronically. Warrants and summonses may not, however, be served electronically.

IV. ARRAIGNMENT AND PREPARATION FOR TRIAL

Criminal L.R. 12. Motions; Evidentiary Hearings

(a) Motions.

(1) Absent a Court order, all motions raising any issue described in Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b)(3) must be filed within fourteen (14) days after arraignment on an indictment. Every motion must state the statute, rule, or legal or equitable principle pursuant to which it is made and may be accompanied by a supporting memorandum, affidavits, or other documents.

(2) Unless excused by the Court in an individual case, a motion to continue the trial setting of a criminal case must state facts demonstrating that the ends of justice served by a continuance outweigh the best interests of the public and the Defendant in a speedy trial, see 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), or that for some other reason the continuance will not violate the Speedy Trial Act. Unless excused by the Court in an individual case, if the Defendant is the moving party, the motion must be accompanied by the Defendant's affidavit or declaration, see 28 U.S.C. § 1746, stating that the Defendant:

(A) Was advised by the defense attorney of the reasons for seeking a continuance;

(B) Understands that the time requested in the extension may be excluded from any calculation of time under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161-3174; and

(C) With this understanding and knowledge, agrees to the filing of the motion.

(3) Absent a Court order, the non-movant has seven (7) days from the date the motion is served to file a memorandum or other materials in response to any such motion.

(4) Absent a Court order, the movant has seven (7) days from the date the response is served to file any reply.

(5) Any time between the arraignment and the date set by pretrial scheduling order for filing pretrial motions must be deemed excluded from the speedy trial deadline under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii), upon a specific finding and order by the Judge under 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A).

(b) Evidentiary Hearing. If a motion seeks an evidentiary hearing, the movant must provide in the motion a short, plain statement of the principal legal issue or issues at stake and specific grounds for relief in the motion and, after a conference with the non-movant, provide a description of the material disputed facts that the movant claims require an evidentiary hearing. The movant also must provide an estimate of the time necessary for the hearing. The non-movant may file a response opposing an evidentiary hearing within seven (7) days after service of a movant's motion seeking an evidentiary hearing. The non-movant's response must include a short, plain statement of why that party believes that an evidentiary hearing is unnecessary.

Criminal L.R. 12.4. Disclosure Statements

(a) Required Information.

(1) Non-governmental Parties and Amici. To enable the Court to determine whether recusal is necessary or appropriate, an attorney for a non-governmental party or an amicus curiae must file a Disclosure Statement that:

(A) States the full name of every party or amicus the attorney represents in the action; and

(B) If such party or amicus is a corporation:

(i) Identifies any parent corporation and any publicly held corporation owning ten percent (10%) or more of its stock; or

(ii) States there is no such corporation; and

(C) States the names of all law firms whose attorneys will appear, or are expected to appear, for the party in this Court.

(2) Organizational Victims. The government is required to file a Disclosure Statement in those actions where it is alleged that an organization is a victim of the criminal conduct that is charged. The Disclosure Statement shall provide the following information:

(A) The full name of every organizational victim that has been identified; and

(B) If such victim is a corporation:

(i) Identify any parent corporation and any publicly held corporation owning ten percent (10%) or more of its stock; or

(ii) State there is no such corporation.

(b) Filing. A non-governmental party or amici must file the Disclosure Statement at the time of the first appearance of the party or amicus. The government must file its Disclosure Statement, when required, within fourteen (14) days after the indictment or information is filed. All parties and amicus must promptly file a supplemental statement if any required information changes.

(c) Form. The form of the Disclosure Statement is set forth in the Appendix of Forms attached to these Rules.

Criminal L.R. 12.5. Notice of Entrapment Defense

If a Defendant intends to rely upon the defense of entrapment at the time of the alleged crime, he/she shall, within the time provided for the filing of pretrial motions or at such later time as ordered by the Court, notify the attorney for the government in writing of such intention and file a copy of such notice with the Clerk. If there is a failure to comply with the requirements of this Rule, entrapment may not be raised as a defense. The Court may, for cause shown, allow late filing of the notice or grant additional time to the parties to prepare for trial or make such other order as may be appropriate.

Criminal L.R. 13. Reassignment of Related Criminal Cases

(a) Conditions for Reassignment. A criminal case may be reassigned to another Judge if it is found to be related to a lower-numbered (or earlier-filed) criminal case assigned to that Judge and each of the following criteria is met:

(1) All Defendants in each of the cases are the same, or, if the Defendants are not all the same, the cases are based upon the same set of facts, events, or offenses;

(2) Both cases are pending in this District;

(3) The handling of both cases by the same Judge is likely to result in the overall saving of judicial resources; and

(4) Neither case has progressed to the point where reassigning a case would likely delay substantially the proceedings in either case, or the Court finds that the assignment of the cases to the same Judge would promote consistency in resolution of the cases or otherwise be in the interest of justice.

(b) Motion to Reassign. A motion for reassignment based on relatedness may be filed by any party to a case. The motion must be filed with, and will be decided by, the Judge to whom the lowest-numbered case of the claimed related set is assigned for trial or other final disposition. If the set includes both felony cases and one or more misdemeanors assigned to a Magistrate Judge, then the motion must be filed with, and will be decided by, the District Judge assigned to the lowest-numbered felony case in the set. Copies of the motion must be served on all parties for all of the affected cases. The motion must:

(1) Set forth the points of commonality of the cases in sufficient detail to indicate that the cases are related within the meaning of subsection (a); and

(2) Indicate the extent to which the conditions required by subsection (a) will be met if the cases are found to be related.

Absent a Court order, any objection to the motion must be filed within seven (7) days of the filing of the motion.

(c) Order. The Judge must enter an order finding whether or not the cases are related, and, if they are, whether the higher-numbered case or cases should be reassigned. Where the Judge finds that reassignment should occur, the Clerk must reassign the higher-numbered case or cases to the Judge deciding the motion and to whom the lowest-numbered case is assigned.

(d) Scope of Reassignment Order. An order under this Rule reassigning cases as related does not constitute a joinder order under Fed. R. Crim. P. 13.

Criminal L.R. 16. Discovery and Inspection

(a) Policy. It is the Court's policy to rely on the standard discovery procedure set forth in this Rule as the sole means of the exchange of discovery in criminal actions except in extraordinary circumstances. This Rule is intended to promote the efficient exchange of discovery without altering the rights and obligations of the parties, while at the same time eliminating the routine filing of perfunctory and duplicative discovery motions.

(b) Initial Disclosures.

(1) Disclosure by the Government. At arraignment, or on a date otherwise set by the Court for good cause shown, the government shall tender to Defendant the following:

(A) Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a) Information. All discoverable information within the scope of Rule 16(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, together with a notice pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b)(4)(A) of the government's intent to use this evidence;

(B) Brady Material. All information and material known to the government which may be favorable to the Defendant on the issues of guilt or punishment, without regard to materiality, within the scope of Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963);

(C) Giglio Material. The existence and substance of any payments, promises of immunity, leniency, preferential treatment, or other inducements made to prospective witnesses, within the scope of United States v. Giglio, 405 U.S. 150 (1972);

(D) Testifying Informant's Convictions. A record of prior convictions of any alleged informant who will testify for the government at trial;

(E) Defendant's Identification. If a line-up, show-up, photo spread, or similar procedure was used in attempting to identify the Defendant, the exact procedure and participants shall be described and the results, together with any pictures and photographs, shall be disclosed;

(F) Inspection of Vehicles, Vessels, or Aircraft. If any vehicle, vessel, or aircraft was allegedly utilized in the commission of any offenses charged, the government shall permit the Defendant's counsel and an expert selected by the defense to inspect it, if it is in the custody of any governmental authority;

(G) Defendant's Latent Prints. If latent fingerprints, or prints of any type, have been identified by a government expert as those of the Defendant, copies thereof shall be provided;

(H) Fed. R. Evid. 404(b). The government shall advise the Defendant of its intention to introduce evidence in its case in chief at trial, pursuant to Rule 404(b) of the Federal Rules of Evidence; and

(I) Electronic Surveillance Information. If the Defendant was an "aggrieved person" as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 2510(11), the government shall so advise the Defendant and set forth the detailed circumstances thereof.

(2) Obligations of the Government.

(A) The government shall anticipate the need for, and arrange for the transcription of, the grand jury testimony of all witnesses who will testify in the government's case in chief, if subject to Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Jencks Act materials and witnesses' statements shall be provided as required by Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2 and 18 U.S.C. § 3500. However, the government and, where applicable, the Defendant are requested to make such materials and statements available to the other party sufficiently in advance of trial as to avoid any delays or interruptions.

(B) The government shall advise all government agents and officers involved in the action to preserve all rough notes.

(C) The identification and production of all discoverable evidence or information is the personal responsibility of each Assistant United States Attorney assigned to the action and may not be delegated without the express permission of the Court.

(3) Disclosures to U. S. Probation. At arraignment, or on a date otherwise set by the Court upon good cause shown, the government shall tender to the U. S. Probation Office all essential information needed by U. S. Probation to accurately calculate the sentencing guideline range for the Defendant, including, but not limited to: information regarding the nature of the offense; the nature of the victim and the injury sustained by the victim; Defendant's role in the offense; whether Defendant obstructed justice in the commission of the crime; Defendant's criminal history; and any information regarding Defendant's status as a career offender/armed career criminal. In addition, in order to comply with the requirements of the Anti-Terrorism Act, the government shall produce to the U. S. Probation Office information regarding the victims of Defendant's alleged criminal activity, including, but not limited to, identifying each victim by name, address, and phone number, and the nature and extent of said victim's loss or injury.

(4) Disclosures by the Defendant. If Defendant accepts or requests disclosure of discoverable information, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(C), (D), or (E), Defendant, on or before a date set by the Court, shall provide to the government all discoverable information within the scope of Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(b).

(c) Supplementation. The provisions of Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(c) are applicable. It shall be the duty of counsel for all parties to immediately reveal to opposing counsel all newly discovered information, evidence, or other material within the scope of this Rule, and there is a continuing duty upon each attorney to disclose expeditiously.

(d) Motions for Discovery. No attorney shall file a discovery motion without first conferring with opposing counsel, and no motion will be considered by the Court unless it is accompanied by a certification of such conference and a statement of the moving party's good faith efforts to resolve the subject matter of the motion by agreement with opposing counsel. The statement must recite the date and time of the conference or conferences and the names of all parties participating. No discovery motions shall be filed for information or material within the scope of this Rule unless it is a motion to compel, a motion for protective order, or a motion for an order modifying discovery. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(d). Discovery requests made pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16 and this Local Rule require no action on the part of this Court and should not be filed unless the party making the request desires to preserve the discovery matter for appeal.

(e) Post-Conviction Disclosures. Within three (3) days of conviction, the government shall provide to the Defendant any additional information that has been provided to the Probation Office in compliance with paragraph (b)(3) of this Rule. Any supplementation of the information provided to the Probation Office shall also be given to the Defendant.

Criminal L.R. 17.1. Pretrial Conferences

(a) In any case that is unusually complex, by reason of the number of parties, the novelty of legal or factual issues presented, the volume of discovery materials, or other factors peculiar to that case, the government must notify the Clerk when the indictment or information is filed that the case is appropriate for a pretrial scheduling conference pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 17.1. If the government has not suggested a pretrial scheduling conference, the defense may do so at the initial appearance or arraignment.

(b) A pretrial scheduling conference pursuant to this Rule and Fed. R. Crim. P. 17.1 may be set by the Judge conducting the arraignment, by the Judge assigned to pretrial proceedings, or by the Judge assigned to preside over the trial of the case. At a pretrial scheduling conference, the Court may set deadlines for filing pretrial motions, briefing, discovery and disclosure by all parties, hearings, trial, or any other dates that will further the ends of justice.

V. VENUE [Reserved]

VI. TRIAL [Reserved]

VII. POST-CONVICTION PROCEDURES

Criminal L.R. 32. Sentencing and Judgment

(a) Time of Sentencing. The sentencing hearing shall be scheduled no earlier than seventy-five (75) days following entry of a guilty plea or nolo contendere plea or a verdict of guilty, except as otherwise agreed to by the parties or ordered by the Court.

(b) Presentence Report. Prior to sentencing, the United States Probation Office (Probation Office) shall prepare a Presentence Investigation Report (PSR) in compliance with Fed. R. Crim. P. 32. In order to provide adequate time for the Probation Office to prepare the PSR, to disclose the PSR to the parties, to review and respond to the presentence submissions filed by the parties, and to comply with such other and further procedures contemplated by the Sentencing Guidelines and this Criminal Local Rule, the Probation Office and counsel for the parties shall cooperate to complete the following mandatory steps in the sentencing process:

(1) They shall ensure that a copy of any plea agreement, including the government's position with regard to whether the Defendant should receive the benefit of timely acceptance of responsibility, is provided to the Probation Office and the Court no later than the date of the guilty plea;

(2) The PSR, including guideline calculations, shall be completed and posted to CM/ECF for retrieval by the parties at least thirty-five (35) days prior to the scheduled sentencing hearing, unless the period is waived by the Defendant or the Court orders otherwise. It shall be the responsibility of counsel for the parties to contact the Clerk for assistance in obtaining access to CM/ECF should a problem arise in retrieving the PSR. It shall be defense counsel's responsibility to discuss the contents of the PSR with the Defendant prior to filing his or her position with respect to sentencing factors. The PSR shall be disclosed only to defense counsel, for disclosure to the Defendant, and the attorney for the government;

(3) If a party reasonably disputes sentencing factors or facts material to sentencing, or seeks the inclusion of factors or facts material to sentencing in the PSR, it is the obligation of the complaining party to seek administrative resolution of such factors or facts through contact with opposing counsel and the Probation Office prior to filing their positions with respect to sentencing factors. Disputed factors or facts material to sentencing should be resolved, if possible and practicable, through informal procedures, including telephone conferences. A more formal presentence conference, to be attended by both parties and to be coordinated by the Probation Office, is mandatory if disputed factors or facts cannot be resolved informally and, in the opinion of the Probation Office, such a conference is necessary and might be productive in resolving disputed factors or facts;

(4) Fourteen (14) days before the sentencing hearing, counsel for the Defendant and the government shall each file a written pleading entitled, "Position of the (United States) (Defendant) with Respect to Sentencing Factors." This pleading either should state that the party adopts the PSR or should detail the party's position as to any disputed factors or facts, including application of the guidelines or any alleged inaccuracies, and should cite the numbered paragraph(s) in the PSR in which the facts or factors are located. In the event a Defendant challenges one of the factual bases for his or her sentence as set forth in the PSR, the burden to establish the disputed fact remains on the United States, but when any party disputes factors or facts in the PSR, their pleading should state what evidence, including written submission(s) or witness(es), if any, the aggrieved party wishes to present at the sentencing hearing. This pleading must also include a written statement certifying that the party has conferred with opposing counsel and the Probation Office in a good faith effort to resolve any disputed matters;

(5) Counsel for the parties shall confer no later than ten (10) days prior to the scheduled sentencing hearing with respect to the anticipated length of the hearing and the number of witnesses to be called. If either party reasonably anticipates that the sentencing hearing will exceed thirty (30) minutes, that party shall file a notice no later than seven (7) days prior to the sentencing hearing. The notice shall advise the Court of the number of witnesses to be called and the estimated time required for the sentencing hearing;

(6) The Probation Office shall file under seal the PSR, including guideline computations, an addendum indicating any unresolved factual disputes or objections by the parties with respect to the application of the guidelines or alleged inaccuracies in the PSR, and the sentencing recommendation. The Probation Office shall also file under seal any revisions to the PSR and the addendum for retrieval by the parties. This information is to be produced for review by the sentencing Judge no later than seven (7) days before the sentencing hearing; and

(7) The presentation during the sentencing hearing will pertain only to those factors or facts important to the sentencing determination, or pertaining to any alleged inaccuracies in the PSR as set out in the pleading entitled "Position of the (United States) (Defendant) with Respect to Sentencing Factors." Except with regard to any objections made under Local Criminal Rule 32(b)(4) that have not been resolved, the report of the PSR shall be accepted as accurate. The Court, however, for good cause shown, may allow a new objection to be raised at any time before the imposition of sentence.

(c) Motions for Downward Departure. Any motion for downward departure pursuant to U.S.S.G. § 5K1.1 shall be filed no later than twenty-four (24) hours before the sentencing hearing. The motion should state the amount of recommended departure from the guideline range.

(d) Confidentiality of Presentence Reports. Confidential records of this Court maintained by the Probation Office, including presentence investigation reports and probation supervision records, may not be disclosed except upon written petition to the Court establishing with particularity the need for specified information contained in such records. No disclosure shall be made except upon Court order. This Rule must not be construed to deny the subject of any presentence report, and/or the subject's counsel, the right to review such presentence report without consent of the Court.

(e) The contents of a presentence report that must be disclosed pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P 32(e) shall not include the probation officer's recommendation on the sentence.

VIII. SUPPLEMENTARY AND SPECIAL PROCEEDINGS [Reserved]

IX. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Criminal L.R. 44. Obligations of Retained and Appointed Counsel

(a) Retained Counsel.

(1) Financial Arrangements; Notice When Arrangements Are Unsatisfactory. Retained criminal defense attorneys are expected to make financial arrangements satisfactory to themselves and sufficient to provide for representation of their client until the conclusion of the client's action. Unless the Court, within fourteen (14) days after arraignment, is notified in writing of counsel's withdrawal because of Defendant's failure to make satisfactory arrangements, the Court will expect counsel to represent the Defendant through the conclusion of the client's action, as defined in subsection (a)(2) herein. Failure of a Defendant to pay sums owed for attorney's fees or failure of counsel to collect the sum sufficient to compensate for all the services usually required of defense counsel will normally not constitute good cause for withdrawal after said fourteen-day period has expired.

(2) Conclusion of Client's Action. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the conclusion of the client's action occurs when the client is acquitted, sentenced, or the action is dismissed. In the event that a Defendant is convicted, retained counsel shall advise the Defendant of his/her right to appeal and of his/her right to counsel on appeal. If requested to do so by the Defendant, counsel shall file a timely notice of appeal. If the Defendant does not seek an appeal, counsel shall file a statement, signed by both attorney and client, that he/she has informed the Defendant of his/her right to appeal and his/her right to obtain counsel on appeal but that the Defendant has advised him/her that he/she does not seek an appeal. Upon the filing of this statement of non-appeal, the attorney's responsibility to represent the client will terminate. Representation by retained counsel in other proceedings shall terminate when the purpose of the representation is accomplished or when terminated by Court order.

(b) Appointed Counsel.

(1) Duties. Counsel appointed under the Criminal Justice Act Plan participate in the Plan in fulfillment of their professional responsibilities as officers of the Court, and the limited amount of compensation accruing in no respect diminishes that responsibility. Appointed counsel shall continue to serve until his/her representation is terminated as provided by the Plan or by Court order. Appointed counsel shall report to the Court any change in his/her client's financial status, that comes to his/her attention, where it appears that the client is able to finance all or a part of the reasonable attorney's fees.

(2) Termination of Appointment. In the event that a Defendant is convicted, counsel appointed under the Criminal Justice Act Plan shall advise the defendant of his/her right to appeal and of his/her right to counsel on appeal. If requested to do so by the Defendant, counsel shall file a timely notice of appeal, and he/she shall continue to represent the Defendant unless he/she is relieved of that responsibility by Court order. If the Defendant does not request that an appeal be filed, counsel shall file a statement, signed by both attorney and client, that the client has been informed of his/her right to appeal and his/her right to obtain counsel on appeal but has chosen not to appeal. Once the notice of non-appeal is filed, the appointment shall terminate. Representation by appointed counsel in other proceedings shall terminate when the purpose of the appointment is accomplished or when terminated by Court order.

(c) Guidelines as to Maximum Compensation. The Clerk shall maintain a schedule of guidelines for maximum compensation to be allowed by the Court, not to exceed that provided in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A.

(d) Authorization for Expert or Other Services. Prior Court authorization is required before obtaining services or incurring any expense such as reporter transcripts, interpreter, investigator, psychiatrist, or other expert services. Counsel should be aware of the maximum fees authorized for expert services in 18 U.S.C. § 3006A(e)(3). The appropriate forms for obtaining authorization for expert services are available from the Clerk.

Criminal L.R. 46. Bonds and Other Sureties

(a) General Requirements. Unless a Judge supervising a criminal action under 18 U.S.C. § 3142 expressly directs otherwise, the principal obligor and one or more sureties qualified as provided in this Rule must execute every bond, recognizance, or other undertaking required by law or Court order in any proceeding.

(b) Unacceptable Sureties. An attorney in a case, the attorney's spouse or employee, a party to a case, and the party's spouse may not act as a surety on a bond or other undertaking in a criminal case.

(c) Corporate Surety. A corporate surety upon any undertaking in which the United States is the obligee must be qualified under 31 U.S.C. §§ 9301–9309 and approved by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States. The parties may consult with the Clerk to confirm that a surety is qualified. In all other instances, a corporate surety qualified to write bonds in the State of Alabama is an acceptable surety. In all cases, a Power of Attorney showing the authority of the agent signing the bond must be attached to the bond.

(d) Personal Surety. Persons competent to convey real estate who own land in the State of Alabama of an unencumbered value of at least the stated penalty of the bond may obtain consideration for qualification as a surety by attaching an acknowledged justification showing:

- (1) A legal description of the real estate;
- (2) A complete list of all encumbrances and liens on the real estate;
- (3) The real estate's market value based on recent sales of like property;
- (4) A waiver of inchoate right of any character and certification that the real estate is not exempt from execution; and
- (5) Certification of the aggregate amount of the penalties of any other subsisting undertakings assured by the bondsman as of that date.

The Judge before whom the proceeding is pending will approve or disapprove the surety after reviewing the justification and certifications.

Criminal L.R. 46.1. Appeal of Release or Detention Orders

(a) Review of Another Court’s Order. When a Judge of another District has entered a detention order in a criminal case pending in this Court, the Magistrate Judge in this District to whom the case has been referred or assigned reviews the detention order under 18 U.S.C. § 3145(b).

(b) Motion to Reopen Proceeding. When a Magistrate Judge enters a detention or release order after a hearing held under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), a motion to “reopen” the proceeding under § 3142(f) is considered as a motion for the same Magistrate Judge to review the matter of detention or release.

(c) Appeal of Detention Order. When reviewing a Magistrate Judge’s order of detention or release, a District Judge may hear and consider additional evidence not considered by the Magistrate Judge if that evidence was not available to be presented to the Magistrate Judge at the hearing held under 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) or for other good cause shown. In the alternative, the District Judge may remand the matter to the Magistrate Judge to reopen the hearing. Unless additional evidence is received on review, the District Judge reviews an order of release or detention de novo on the record made before the Magistrate Judge.

Criminal L.R. 49.2. Sealed Hearings

(a) Sealed Hearings. A party seeking a sealed hearing must move the Court in writing prior to the hearing, or orally at the hearing, when a written motion is not practicable. The Court may seal the hearing in accordance with applicable law. Any written motion and supporting documentation filed pursuant to this Rule must comply with General Local Rule 5.2.

(b) Docket Entry for Sealing Hearing. Whenever the Court orders that a hearing be conducted under seal as provided in subsection (a), the Court, upon a finding of good cause, may order that the docket entry for that hearing state only “SEALED,” and that it be accessible only to the Court and the parties directly involved in the hearing.

Criminal L.R. 58. Misdemeanors and Other Offenses

(a) Generally.

(1) In proceedings upon which no indictment is necessary, see Fed. R. Crim. P. 7(a)(2), deadlines in these Local Rules that commence with arraignment on an indictment instead commence with the entry of a not guilty plea on the trial docket. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 58(b)(1).

(2) Except as provided in paragraph (a)(3), the Defendant in an action on an infraction, as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 19, and listed specifically in a schedule published by order of the Court pursuant to this Rule, may pay the collateral fixed on the citation or complaint, if any, in lieu of appearance, and by doing so authorizes the termination of proceedings and a default judgment in the amount of the sum fixed, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 58(d). The voluntary forfeiture of collateral under this Rule must be treated as a finding of guilt on the infraction charged in the citation or complaint. Government counsel and the Clerk then may execute such judgment without further notice to the Defendant. If a person charged with an infraction under this Rule fails to post and forfeit collateral, any punishment authorized by law may be imposed upon a finding of guilt.

(3) This rule does not preclude the arrest or detention of any person accused of an infraction, as defined by 18 U.S.C. § 19, or requiring the person accused to appear in person before a Judge, to the extent allowed by law.

(b) Trial of Misdemeanors.

(1) Generally, all misdemeanor cases are randomly assigned to the Magistrate Judges in this District, who are authorized to conduct any or all proceedings in such matters. All petty offense cases on the District's docket for a particular month are assigned to the Magistrate Judge who is serving on criminal duty for that month. If proceedings in a petty offense case continue past that duty month, further proceedings on the case are presided over by the duty Magistrate Judge for the month in which the proceedings continue, unless otherwise ordered by the Magistrate Judge who originally presided over the matter.

(2) In all such cases in which the consent of the Defendant is required, the Magistrate Judge must explain to Defendant that the person has a right to trial, judgment, and sentencing by a District Judge, and that the person may have a right to trial by jury before a District Judge or Magistrate Judge. The Magistrate Judge must not try the case unless the Defendant consents to be tried before the Magistrate Judge, specifically waiving a trial, judgment, and sentencing by a District Judge. If the Defendant elects to be tried before a District Judge, the Magistrate Judge must return the case to the Clerk, who must randomly reassign the case to a District Judge.

NOTICE OF AVAILABILITY OF A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE TO EXERCISE JURISDICTION

In accordance with the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(c), and Fed.R.Civ.P. 73, you are notified that a United States magistrate judge of this district court is available to conduct any or all proceedings in this case including a jury or nonjury trial, and to order the entry of a final judgment. Exercise of this jurisdiction by a magistrate judge is, however, permitted only if all parties voluntarily consent.

You may, without adverse substantive consequences, withhold your consent, but this will prevent the court’s jurisdiction from being exercised by a magistrate judge. An appeal from a judgment entered by a magistrate judge shall be taken directly to the United States court of appeals for this judicial circuit in the same manner as an appeal from any other judgment of this district court.

CONSENT TO THE EXERCISE OF JURISDICTION BY A UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

CERTIFICATION REGARDING THE PRELIMINARY GUIDELINE CALCULATIONS OF THE PROBATION OFFICER

The Court, during the arraignment hearing, directed the United States Probation Officer to prepare preliminary calculations, consistent with United States Sentencing Guidelines, as an aide to the parties' efforts to determine the range of possible sentences that could be imposed should the defendant be found guilty on any pending charge. It was intended that the Court, the defendant, defendant's attorney and the Assistant United States Attorney, would have had an opportunity to examine the report on preliminary calculations prior to the pretrial conference. It was also recognized that the calculations would be based on the Probation Officer's review of the relevant information available to the Probation Officer at the time his report is completed and filed.

The Probation Officer in this action has completed the preliminary guideline calculations and they have been shared with the parties. After receipt and review of these preliminary calculations, counsel certifies to the following:

1. A copy of the Probation Officer's report containing the preliminary guideline calculations has been shown to the defendant and we discussed the guideline calculations contained in the report;
2. I have provided the defendant with an independent assessment of the preliminary guideline calculations contained in the report;
3. The defendant has been given an opportunity to ask questions regarding the preliminary guideline calculations and I have responded to those questions; and
4. The defendant was advised that the preliminary guideline calculations contained in the report are based on the Probation Officer's review of the relevant information available to him/her at the time the report was completed and filed, and that the United States Sentencing Guidelines are advisory and do not bind the Court. Furthermore, the defendant was also advised that the preliminary guideline calculations might be different from the final calculations in the event he/she is found guilty on any pending charge and a presentencing report is ordered.

I certify under the penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct on this the _____ day of _____, 2014.

INSTRUCTIONS - READ CAREFULLY

A. Complaint Form. You must file your original complaint and a copy for each named Defendant. Your complaint must be clearly handwritten or typewritten. Do not use the back of a page. Your complaint must be signed by you; no notary is required. Any false statement of material fact may serve as the basis for prosecution for perjury.

B. Proper Court. Your complaint can only be brought in this Court if a defendant is located in the Southern District of Alabama and the rest of the defendants are located in Alabama or if your claim arose in this district. The Southern District of Alabama is comprised of the following counties: Baldwin, Clarke, Choctaw, Conecuh, Dallas, Escambia, Hale, Marengo, Mobile, Monroe, Perry, Washington, and Wilcox.

C. Separate Case. It is necessary to file a separate complaint form for each claim unless the claims are related to the same incident or issue.

D. Defendants. The persons who are listed as defendants in section III of the complaint are deemed by the Court to be the only defendants to this action. A defendant's present address must be provided. The Court is unable to serve process without the present address being furnished. The first defendant listed in section III should be the defendant that you list in the style of your case on your complaint form and motion to proceed without prepayment of fees and costs, if applicable, and any other pleading filed with the Court.

E. Pleading the Complaint. Your complaint should not contain legal arguments, case law or statutory citations. You are required to provide facts. Your complaint shall be a short and plain statement of your claim and shall provide fair notice to each defendant of the claim against that defendant and of the factual grounds upon which the claim rests.

F. Fees. This complaint cannot be properly filed unless it is accompanied by the $400.00 filing fee, or a motion to proceed without prepayment of fees if you are unable to afford the filing fee and other costs associated with prosecuting this action. If IFP is granted the filing fee is $350.00.

If you are unable to pay the filing fee and service costs for this action, you may ask the Court to let you proceed without prepayment of fees and costs. A blank motion for this purpose is included.

If you wish to proceed without prepayment of fees and costs, you must complete and mail to the Clerk of Court a copy of the "Motion to Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees" mailed to you with this complaint. This motion will be returned to you without action unless you have an authorized officer at the jail or prison complete the financial statement mailed to you with this form.

Even if the Court authorizes you to proceed without prepayment of filing fees, you are obligated to pay the full $350.00. If you have the ability to pay a partial filing fee when your complaint is filed, you will be required to pay an amount, based on your assets, of up to the greater of 20 percent of your average monthly balance in your prison account or your average monthly balance for six months immediately preceding the filing of your complaint. Thereafter, your prison account will be garnished at the rate of 20 percent of your monthly income until the filing fee is paid.

G. Form of Pleadings. All pleadings and other papers filed must be on 8 1/2" x 11" paper, legibly handwritten or typewritten. Every document filed after the complaint must have the style of the case and the docket number. Every pleading must be signed by you and must contain your address and telephone number, if any; otherwise, the pleading will be stricken. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a). No notary is required.

H. Certificate of Service. Each pleading filed after the complaint must contain a certificate of service indicating that the pleading has been served on the opposing parties and the date that it was sent. A pleading will be stricken if it does not contain this certificate of service. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 5.

I. Copies. This Court will not make copies of your complaint or pleadings unless you prepay the required per page copying fee.

J. Form of Pleadings. Do not write letters to the Court. All pleadings and documents should be sent to the Clerk of the Court, and not to a magistrate judge or a district judge.

RIGHT TO CLAIM EXEMPTION FROM GARNISHMENT

A process of garnishment has been delivered to you. This means that a court may order your wages, money in a bank, sums owed to you, or other property belonging to you, to be paid into court to satisfy a judgment against you.

Laws of the State of Alabama and of the United States provide that in some circumstances certain money and property may not be taken to pay certain types of court judgments, because certain money or property may be “exempt” from garnishment. For example, under state law, in some circumstances, up to $3,000.00 in wages, personal property, including money, bank accounts, automobiles, appliances, etc., may be exempt from process of garnishment. Similarly, under federal law, certain benefits and certain welfare payments may be exempt from garnishment.

THESE EXAMPLES ARE FOR PURPOSES OF ILLUSTRATION ONLY.

Whether you will be entitled to claim any exemption from the process of garnishment, and if so, what property may be exempt, will be determined by the facts in your particular case. If you are uncertain as to your possible exemption rights, you should consult a lawyer for advice.

To claim any exemption that may be available to you, you must prepare a “Claim of Exemption” form listing on it all your wages and personal property, have the claim of exemption notarized and file it in the Clerk’s Office. Also, it is your responsibility to mail or deliver a copy of the claim to the plaintiff who has a judgment against you. You must indicate on the claim that you file in the Clerk’s Office whether you mailed or delivered the copy to the plaintiff and the date on which you mailed or delivered it. The clerk cannot give you legal advice. If you need assistance you should see a lawyer.

If you file a Claim of Exemption, the Plaintiff will have approximately ten (10) days to file a “contest” of your claim. If a contest is filed, a court hearing will be scheduled and you will be notified of the time and place of the hearing. If the Plaintiff does not file a contest, the property claimed by you as exempt will be released from the garnishment.

If you do not file a Claim of Exemption, your property may be turned over to the court and paid to the Plaintiff on the judgment against you.

TO PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS, IT IS IMPORTANT THAT YOU ACT PROMPTLY. IF YOU HAVE ANY QUESTIONS, YOU SHOULD CONSULT A LAWYER.
